Item 2. DISSENTERS' RIGHT OF APPRAISAL

Section 80, Title X of the Revised Corporation Code provides that a stockholder may exercise their right of appraisal in any of the following instances: (a) in case an amendment to the articles of incorporation has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of any stockholder or class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior to those of outstanding shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of corporate existence; (b) in case of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets; (c) in case of merger or consolidation; and (d) in case of investment of corporate funds for any purpose other than the primary purpose of the corporation. Section 81, Title X of the Revised Corporation Code further states that only a dissenting stockholder who voted against the proposed corporate action may exercise the right of appraisal.

No matters or proposed corporate actions on the agenda of the meeting currently included which may give rise to the exercise by a security holder of the right of appraisal. Should a proposed corporate action be passed upon at the meeting that triggers this right, COL Financial Group, Inc. ("COL", the "Corporation", or the "Company") adopts the procedures laid out in Title X of the Revised Corporation Code for a valid exercise of appraisal right.

Item 3. INTEREST OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN OR OPPOSITION TO MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

- (a) No current director or officer of COL, or any associate thereof, has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, by security holdings or otherwise, in any matter to be acted upon at the Special Stockholder's Meeting.
- (b) The Corporation has not received any information in writing from any person who intends to oppose any action to be taken at the Special Stockholders' Meeting.

B. CONTROL AND COMPENSATION INFORMATION

Item 4. VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

- (a) Class of Voting Securities : Common shares
- Number of Shares Outstanding as of 31 July 2026 : 5,949,999,998
- Number of votes entitled : One (1) vote per share

The Corporation's Amended By-Laws provide that one share entitles the holder thereof to one vote, except in the election of the members of the Board of Directors ("Board") where any stockholder can cumulate their votes.

(b) Record Date

Stockholders of record as of 2 September 2026 ("Record Date") are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Corporation's Special Stockholders' Meeting.

(c) Manner of Voting

According to the Corporation's Amended By-Laws, a stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting is entitled to one (1) vote per each share of capital stock qualified to vote by the Articles of Incorporation, and has the right to vote in person, by proxy, by remote communication, or in absentia. In case of a proxy, and unless otherwise provided in the proxy, it shall be valid only for the meeting at which it has been presented to the Corporate Secretary. All proxies must be in the hands of the Corporate Secretary at least ten (10) working days before the date set for the meeting. Proxies filed with the Corporate Secretary may be revoked by the stockholders either in an instrument in writing duly presented and recorded with the Corporate Secretary prior to a scheduled meeting or by their personal presence at the meeting.

For this Special Stockholders' Meeting, the proposed action does not include the election of directors. Additionally, a stockholder may vote electronically in absentia using the web address <https://shareholders.colfinancial.com>. A stockholder voting electronically in absentia shall be deemed present for the purposes of quorum. Please refer to Annex "D" for information on electronic voting in absentia.

The deadline for submission of proxies shall be on 11 September 2026 (Friday).

(e) Changes in Control

There were no persons holding more than five percent (5%) of a class of shares under a voting trust or similar agreement.

The Corporation is not aware of any voting trust agreement or any other similar agreement, which may result in a change of control in the Corporation. No change in control of the Corporation has occurred since the beginning of its last fiscal year.

Item 5. DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

No action will be taken with respect to the election of directors during the Special Stockholders' Meeting.

Item 6. COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

No action will be taken with respect to the following matters during the Special Stockholders' Meeting:

- (a) the election of directors;
- (b) any bonus, profit sharing or other compensation plan, contract or arrangement in which any director, nominee for election as a director, or executive officer of the Corporation will participate;
- (c) any pension or retirement plan in which any such person will participate; or
- (d) the granting or extension to any such person of any option/s, warrant/s or right/s to purchase any securities, other than warrants or rights issued to security holders as such, on a pro rata basis. No solicitation will be made on behalf of any persons.

Item 7. INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

No action will be taken with respect to the election, approval or ratification of the Corporation's external auditor during the Special Stockholders' Meeting.

Item 8. COMPENSATION PLANS

No action, with respect to any compensation plan pursuant to which cash or non-cash compensation may be paid or distributed, will be taken up during the Special Stockholders' Meeting.

C. ISSUANCE AND EXCHANGE OF SECURITIES

Item 9. AUTHORIZATION OR ISSUANCE OF SECURITIES OTHER THAN FOR EXCHANGE

Section 42 of the Revised Corporation Code prohibits stock corporations from retaining surplus profits in excess of one hundred percent (100%) of their paid-in capital stock, except in certain instances. The same provision allows the board of directors of a corporation to declare dividends out of its unrestricted retained earnings, which may be payable in stock to all stockholders on the basis of outstanding shares, provided that such declaration is approved by stockholders representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the corporation's outstanding capital stock.

The Corporation has determined that it has sufficient retained earnings available for the declaration of stock dividends. Accordingly, on 14 August 2026, the Board of Directors of the Corporation held a meeting during which it approved the declaration of stock dividends to the stockholders of record as of 20 October 2026 ("Record Date"), subject to the approval of stockholders representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation. In this regard, this Information Statement is being filed in connection with, and constitutes the basis for, the Special Stockholders' Meeting to be held on 25 September 2026 to seek the required stockholders' approval of the stock dividend declaration.

A total of Three Billion Five Hundred Seventy Million (3,570,000,000) common shares will be issued as stock dividends which is equivalent to sixty percent (60%) of the total outstanding capital stock of the Corporation. Fractional shares will be paid in cash based on the closing price of the Corporation's common shares on Record Date. The stock dividends will be issued from the unissued authorized capital stock of the Corporation. The Corporation will also submit its application to list the Three Billion Five Hundred Seventy Million (3,570,000,000) common shares with the Philippine Stock Exchange ("PSE") and such shares will be distributed to the stockholders only after the Corporation receives PSE's approval for their listing.

The shares will be entitled to receive future dividends to be declared by the Corporation and will have the same voting rights as those of the issued and outstanding common shares. Like all common shares of the Corporation, the shares will be subject to the following restrictions provided in the Corporation's Amended Articles of Incorporation, including: (a) Article Seventh which prescribes ownership restrictions for all shares of stock of the Corporation; (b) Article Eleventh which prohibits the transfer of stock or interest in the Corporation if it will reduce the ownership of Filipino citizens to less than the required percentage of capital stock; and (c) Article Twelfth which does not provide pre-emptive rights to stockholders.

Item 10. MODIFICATION OR EXCHANGE OF SECURITIES

There is no action with respect to the modification of any class of securities in exchange for outstanding securities of another class.

Item 11. FINANCIAL AND OTHER INFORMATION

The Corporation filed its SEC Form 17-Q (Quarterly Report) for the second quarter of 2026 with the SEC and the PSE, a copy of which is attached hereto as Annex "B". The same report is posted and made available in the Corporation's website and will be furnished by the Corporation upon the request of any stockholder. The report contains the consolidated statement of financial position as of the end of the most recent quarter, with comparative figures as of the end of the preceding fiscal year.

On the other hand, the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations, Market Price of Shares and Dividends, and other information related to the Corporation's financial information is attached hereto as Annex "C".

Representatives of SGV & Co. are expected to be present at the stockholders' meeting and will be available to respond to appropriate questions. They will have the opportunity to make a statement if they so desire. Additionally, there have been no disagreements with SGV & Co. on accounting and/or financial disclosure for the last five (5) years.

Item 12. MERGERS, CONSOLIDATIONS, ACQUISITIONS AND SIMILAR MATTERS

No action taken will be taken by the Corporation with respect to any merger, consolidation, or acquisition.

Item 13. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

No action will be taken by the Corporation with respect to the acquisition or disposition of any property.

Item 14. RESTATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS

No action will be taken by the Corporation with respect to the restatement of any asset, capital, or surplus account.

D. OTHER MATTERS

Item 15. ACTION WITH RESPECT TO REPORTS

The following matters are on the Agenda of the Special Stockholders' Meeting for the approval of the stockholders:

(a) Approval of the Minutes of the Previous Stockholders' Meeting (See Annex "A").

Item 16. MATTERS NOT REQUIRED TO BE SUBMITTED

There are no matters or actions to be taken up in the meeting that will not require the vote of the stockholders as of the record date.

Item 17. AMENDMENT OF CHARTER, BY-LAWS, OR OTHER DOCUMENTS

There are no actions to be taken with respect to the amendment of the Articles of Incorporation or By-laws of the Corporation.

Item 18. OTHER PROPOSED ACTION

There are no proposed actions other than those indicated in the notice for this Special Stockholders' Meeting.

Item 19. VOTING PROCEDURES

(a) Vote required for approval and election

Article II of the Amended By-Laws of the Corporation provides that in all regular or special meeting of stockholders, a majority of outstanding capital stock entitled to vote must be present or represented in order to constitute a quorum. If no quorum is constituted, the meeting shall be adjourned until requisite amount of stock shall be present or represented.

A stockholder who participates through remote communication, in absentia, or such other alternative modes of communication shall be deemed present for purposes of determining the quorum.

Unless otherwise provided, the ratification of Board actions and the approval of ordinary corporate acts shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding capital stock present or represented at a meeting at which a quorum exists. The approval or ratification of the declaration of stock dividends shall require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding capital stock.

(b) Method by which votes will be counted

Votes will be counted by shares and not per capita. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each share of capital stock entitled to vote. Only the personnel of the Office of the Corporate Secretary and the Stock Transfer Agent are authorized to count the votes.

As approved by a majority of the Board of Directors, the Corporation will conduct the Special Stockholders' Meeting by remote communication through <https://shareholders.colfinancial.com>. Voting shall be done by remote communication, electronically in absentia through the same platform, or by voting through proxy. A stockholder voting electronically in absentia will be deemed present at the meeting for purposes of quorum.

To enable the Corporation to perform validation procedures, identify the shareholders participating by remote communication and record their presence for purposes of quorum, the shareholders must complete the registration requirements in said portal by 11 September 2026. Information on participation through remote communication and electronic voting in absentia are included in Annex "D."

Proxies must be submitted by email to corporatesecretary@colfinancial.com on or before 11 September 2026.

THE REGISTRANT WILL PROVIDE, WITHOUT CHARGE, TO EACH PERSON. UPON WRITTEN REQUEST OF ANY SUCH PERSON, A COPY OF THE REGISTRANT'S QUARTERLY REPORT OR SEC FORM 17-Q FOR THE 2ND QUARTER OF 2026. SUCH WRITTEN REQUEST SHOULD BE ADDRESSED TO THE FOLLOWING:

COL FINANCIAL GROUP, INC.
Annual Stockholders' Meeting
30 April 2026, Friday, 2:00 P.M. conducted virtually via <https://shareholders.colfinancial.com>

Shareholders Present:*	No. of Outstanding and Voting Shares	Percentage of Total
	5,439,843,512	91.43%

The attendance record of directors, officers, and stockholders is attached as Annex "A".*

1. Call to Order and Proof of Notice

The Chairman of the Board of Directors of COL Financial Group, Inc. ("COL" or "Corporation") called the meeting to order.

The Corporate Secretary ("Secretary") reported that the stockholders as of record date of March 30, 2026 were notified of the meeting as follows:

- The Notice of the Meeting, containing the Agenda, was published in the print and online business sections of the Daily Tribune and The Manila Times on April 7 and 8, 2026; and
- Digital copies of the Information Statement, Management Report, Annual Report, Notice and Agenda for the Stockholders' Meeting, and other pertinent documents were also uploaded and may be viewed in the COL website and the PSE Edge.

2. Determination of Quorum, Instruction on Rules of Conduct and Voting Procedures

The Secretary certified that there was a quorum for the meeting. Out of the total outstanding capital stock of the Corporation of Five Billion Nine Hundred Forty-Nine Million Nine Hundred Ninety-Nine Thousand Nine Hundred Ninety-Eight (5,949,999,998) common shares, Five Billion Four Hundred Thirty-Nine Million Eight Hundred Forty-Three Thousand Five Hundred Twelve (5,439,843,512) shares constituting Ninety-One point Forty-Three Percent (91.43%) of the subscribed and outstanding capital stock entitled to vote were present in the meeting.

Thereafter, the Secretary explained that the rules of conduct and voting procedures are set forth in the Definitive Information Statement. She highlighted, among others, the following points:

- Stockholders who registered in the ASM Portal by 5:00 P.M. on 16 April 2026 may send their questions or comments either by email to the corporate secretary or by inputting their questions or comments directly in the Portal in the space provided for in the tab marked as 'Legal'.
- There are four (4) resolutions, excluding the election of directors, proposed for adoption in the meeting.
- Stockholders who successfully registered in the ASM Portal may cast their votes on the proposed resolutions and in the election of directors through the ASM Portal until 3:00 pm of 30 April 2026.

- The votes cast as of the end of the proxy validation process have been tabulated. These votes are from stockholders owning Five Billion Four Hundred Thirty-Nine Million Eight Hundred Forty-Three Thousand Five Hundred Twelve (5,439,843,512) voting shares, representing approximately One Hundred percent (100%) of the total voting shares represented in the meeting and Ninety-One point Forty-Three Percent (91.43%) of the total outstanding voting shares. The results of the preliminary tabulation will be referred to throughout the meeting. However, the results of the final tabulation of votes with full details of the affirmative and negative votes and abstentions will be reflected in the minutes of the meeting.

3. Approval of the Minutes of the Previous Meeting

The Chairman presented the minutes of the previous stockholders' meeting held on 25 April 2025. The stockholders passed and approved the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, that the minutes of the meeting of the stockholders held on April 25, 2025 be, as it is hereby confirmed, ratified, and approved."

As tabulated by the Secretary, the votes on the motion for the approval of the minutes of the 25 April 2025 Stockholders' Meeting were as follows:

Approval of the Minutes of the Previous Meeting
	Yes	No	Abstain
Number of Voted Shares	5,439,843,512	-	-
% of Voting Shares Present	100.00%	0.00%	0.00%

4. President's Report for 2025

The President of COL, Mr. Conrado F. Bate, welcomed all the attendees and presented to the stockholders his report for the year 2025.

5. Ratification of all Acts and Proceedings of the Board of Directors and Management for the Year 2025

The stockholders passed and approved the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, that all acts, investments, and resolutions of the Board of Directors and Management for the calendar year 2025 are hereby confirmed, ratified, and approved."

As tabulated by the Secretary, the votes on the motion for the ratification of all acts, investments, and resolutions of the Board of Directors and Management were as follows:

Ratification of 2025 Acts, Investments, and Resolutions of the Board and Management
	Yes	No	Abstain
Number of Voted Shares	5,439,843,512	-	-
% of Voting Shares Present	100.00%	0.00%	0.00%

6. Approval of the 2025 Audited Financial Statements

The stockholders passed and approved the following resolution:

“RESOLVED, that the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025 be hereby approved.”

As tabulated by the Secretary, the votes on the motion for the approval of the 2025 Audited Financial Statements were as follows:

Approval of the 2025 Audited Financial Statements

7. Election of Directors for the Year 2026 to 2027

The next item in the agenda was the election of Directors for the year 2026-2027. On behalf of the Nomination Committee, the Secretary reported that the committee received nominations for and pre-screened the following persons as nominees of the Corporation’s Board of Directors:

Mr. Edward K. Lee
Mr. Alexander C. Yu
Mr. Conrado F. Bate
Mr. Paulwell Han
Mr. Kosuke Mizuno
Mr. Hernan G. Lim
Mr. Raymond C. Yu
Mr. Arthur Gerrard Gindap
Ms. Betty C. Siy-Yap
Mr. Roberto C. Benares; and
Mr. Rafael Ma. C. Vinzon

Out of eleven (11) nominees, four (4) were nominated as independent directors, namely: Mr. Arthur G. Gindap, Ms. Betty C. Siy-Yap, Mr. Roberto C. Benares and Mr. Rafael Ma. C. Vinzon.

The Chairman requested the Secretary to report on the results of the election. The Secretary reported that based on the partial tabulation of votes, each of the nominees for directors garnered at least Five Billion One Hundred Seventy-Nine Million Forty-Seven Thousand Five Hundred Seventy-Five (5,179,047,575) votes. The Secretary certified that each nominee received sufficient votes for election to the Board.

The stockholders passed and approved the following resolution:

“RESOLVED, to elect the following as directors of the Corporation for the year 2026-2027:

Mr. Edward K. Lee
Mr. Alexander C. Yu
Mr. Conrado F. Bate
Mr. Paulwell Han

Mr. Kosuke Mizuno
Mr. Hernan G. Lim
Mr. Raymond C. Yu
Mr. Arthur Gerrard Gindap
Ms. Betty C. Siy-Yap
Mr. Roberto C. Benares; and
Mr. Rafael Ma. C. Vinzon”

After final tabulation by the Secretary, it was determined that each nominee received the following number of votes:

Director	No. of Votes
1. Edward K. Lee	5,315,895,075
2. Alexander C. Yu	6,542,480,382
3. Conrado F. Bate	5,179,047,575
4. Paulwell Han	5,179,047,575
5. Kosuke Mizuno	5,179,047,575
6. Hernan G. Lim	5,179,047,575
7. Raymond C. Yu	5,179,047,575
8. Arthur G. Gindap	5,179,047,575
9. Betty C. Siy-Yap	5,179,047,575
10. Roberto C. Benares	5,179,047,575
11. Rafael Ma. C. Vinzon	5,179,047,575

8. Appointment of External Auditor

The stockholders re-appointed Sycip, Gorres & Velayo as the Corporation’s external auditor by approving the following resolution:

“RESOLVED, that SGV & Company, Certified Public Accountants, be, as they are hereby, re-appointed as external auditors of the Company for the year 2026-2027.”

As tabulated by the Secretary, the votes on the motion for re-appointment of the external auditor of the Corporation for the year 2026-2027 were as follows:

Appointment of External Auditor	Yes	No	Abstain
Number of Voted Shares	5,402,110,512	-	-
% of Voting Shares Present	100.00%	0.00%	0.00%

9. Other Matters and Adjournment

a. 2026 Regular and Special Cash Dividends

The Chairman informed the stockholders that the Board, in the meeting conducted in the morning of April 30, 2026, approved the declaration of cash dividends to all stockholders of record as of May 15, 2026, as follows: ₱0.0194 per share as regular cash dividend and ₱0.0387 per share as special cash dividend or a total of ₱0.0581 per share for the year. The dividends will be paid on June 4, 2026.

b. Questions

Stockholders were given the opportunity to submit their questions either through the ASM Portal or by emailing the same to the Secretary.

The above notwithstanding, the Secretary noted that she did not receive any questions from the stockholders.

c. Adjournment

There being no other matters to take up, the meeting was adjourned.

PART I – FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Item 1. Financial Statements.

The unaudited interim consolidated financial statements are filed as part of this Form 17-Q.

Item 2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations.

The following is a discussion and analysis of the financial performance of COL Financial Group, Inc. (COL, COL Financial, or the Parent Company) and its subsidiaries collectively referred to as “the Group”. The discussion aims to provide readers with an appreciation of its business model and the key factors underlying its financial results. The MD&A should be read in conjunction with the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of the Group filed as part of this report.

Company Overview

COL Financial Group, Inc. is a publicly listed company in the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE), incorporated on August 16, 1999.

COL Financial is widely recognized as the leading online stockbroker in the Philippines, serving over half a million clients. Since launching the country’s first non-bank online trading platform in 2005, COL has been at the forefront of democratizing stock market access. At a time when investing was largely limited to a select few, COL broke barriers by leveraging technology and education to empower everyday Filipinos to take control of their financial future.

To build investor confidence and promote financial literacy, COL invested in free seminars, research tools, and educational resources, supporting self-directed investors with the knowledge they needed to make informed investment decisions.

As the market evolved, so did COL. In 2010, the Parent Company launched a dedicated advisory team to serve high-net-worth individuals and institutional clients. By 2014, COL expanded into the fund distribution space, offering access to a broad range of local and global investment products.

In 2019, COL Investment Management Inc. (CIMI), COL’s asset management arm, was established to provide professionally managed solutions tailored to the Filipino investor. In 2022 and 2023, CIMI launched two in-house mutual funds, namely:

- COL Equity Index Unitized Mutual Fund, Inc. (CEIUMF)
- COL Strategic Growth Equity Unitized Mutual Fund, Inc. (CSGEUMF)

These funds reflect COL’s continued commitment to making expert-led investment solutions more accessible to the public.

In line with COL’s continuing initiatives to strengthen its service offerings, it implemented further enhancements to its client engagement framework. Recognizing the growing need of the high-net-worth clients for a more personalized, goal-driven financial guidance, COL formally established its Private Wealth group in June 2025. This unit builds on COL’s long-standing advisory capabilities and provides higher-touch, relationship-based support to clients seeking a more comprehensive approach to managing their investments. Through deeper engagement, customized strategies, and an expanded suite of investment solutions, the Private Wealth group helps clients manage, grow, and preserve their wealth—further strengthening COL’s position as a trusted partner in long-term financial planning.

As part of its strategic realignment initiatives, COL completed the wind-down and deregistration of its Hong Kong operations under COL Securities (HK) Limited (COLHK). COLHK ceased trading operations in May 2024, and its deregistration was completed on April 17, 2026 following the revocation of its license by the Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) and the approval of the Hong Kong Companies Registry.

Today, COL continues to be the most trusted online stockbroker in the Philippines, with a consistent focus on technology innovation, investor empowerment, and financial education. As the financial industry transforms, COL is evolving into a full-scale investment platform, enabling Filipinos to build, grow, track, and protect their wealth across multiple asset classes, while staying true to its founding mission of financial inclusion and empowerment.

Business Model

COL Financial is driven by the belief that every Filipino deserves the opportunity to live a richer life—regardless of age, income level, or investment knowledge. Staying true to this mission, COL has made investing more accessible to all, from seasoned market participants to first-time investors.

The business model of COL is anchored on creating long-term value for its customers by addressing their evolving needs through financial education, a broad range of ethical products and services, and expert insights. This approach ensures that clients are equipped with both the knowledge and the right investment solutions to meet their financial goals—no matter where they are in their investing journey.

COL Financial generates a significant portion of its revenue from its core stock brokerage operations in the Philippines. Its key revenue streams include:

- Commissions from stock trades,
- Interest income from margin financing,
- Trail fees from its fund distribution business, and
- Interest income from short-term placements.

Looking ahead, COL Financial remains focused on supporting Filipinos in building wealth by continuously expanding its investment offerings, enhancing its technology-driven solutions, and solidifying its position as the country's leading online broker.

Industry and Economic Review

Philippine equities started 2026 on a strong note, supported by robust foreign inflows into emerging markets. By end-February, the Philippine Stock Exchange Composite Index (PSEi) had risen 9.22% year-to-date, as foreign investors rotated out of U.S. equities and into emerging market stocks. This shift was driven by growing concerns over the stretched valuations of U.S. technology stocks and a potential slowdown in the sector. In contrast, emerging market equities offered more attractive valuations and greater exposure to traditional sectors. A weaker U.S. dollar also encouraged investors to diversify into emerging markets. As a result, net foreign buying in the local market reached ₱21.27 billion during the first two months of the year.

However, the market's strong performance was short-lived. On February 28, the U.S. and Israel began bombing Iran, prompting Iran to retaliate by threatening vessels transiting the Strait of Hormuz. The effective closure of the Strait, where around a fifth of the world's oil passes through, caused oil prices to surge. This weighed heavily on Philippine equities, as the country's dependence on oil imports made investor sentiment highly sensitive to rising energy prices.

The increase in oil prices also fed into domestic inflation and broader macroeconomic weakness. Average inflation rose to 6.10% from March to June 2026, up significantly from only 2.2% during the first two months of the year, driven mainly by higher food, utilities, and transport costs. At the same time, gross domestic product growth slowed to 2.60% during the first half, its weakest pace since the pandemic, as consumer spending growth decelerated to only 2.90% while government spending on construction dropped by 32.20%. The peso also weakened significantly, reflecting the sharp increase in import costs.

As a result, the PSEi reversed its earlier gains and ended the first half of the year flat year-to-date. Foreign investors also turned net sellers, liquidating ₱15.43 billion worth of Philippine equities during the first six months of 2026.

Despite the market's lackluster performance, trading activity improved from a year earlier. Average daily value turnover reached ₱7.72 billion in the first half of 2026, up from ₱6.80 billion in the same period last year.

Business Review

Key Performance Indicators

COL Financial remains focused on maximizing profitability through the strategic allocation of resources, with the overarching goal of enhancing shareholder value. To ensure sustainable growth, it continuously evaluates the effectiveness of its corporate initiatives and key performance indicators (KPI), which serve as critical benchmarks in assessing the success of its financial and operational strategies. Outlined below are some of the KPIs used to measure the Group's progress:

	June 30, 2026	June 30, 2025
Number of Customer Accounts*	574,297	563,139
Customers' Net Equity (in millions)	₱122,647.34	₱124,185.87
Revenues (in millions)	₱592.72	₱562.21
Annualized Return on Equity	21.30%	22.03%
Risk Based Capital Adequacy Ratio*	548.33%	791.84%

 Parent Company only*

COL's customer base continued to grow, with customer accounts increasing by 1.98% year-on-year to 574,297 as of end-June 2026. The growth was supported by sustained client acquisition initiatives, enhancements to the account onboarding process and ongoing client engagement programs, which continued to attract new investors despite volatile market conditions.

Customers' net equity fell by 1.24% to ₱122.65 billion during the period despite the ₱4.19 billion in cash dividends received and ₱4.71 billion in net cash inflows over the past twelve months as the PSEi index fell by 5.15% compared to the same period last year. Accordingly, the reduction in customers' net equity was primarily market-driven rather than attributable to net withdrawals from the Parent Company's operations.

Revenues for the period increased by 5.43% to ₱592.72 million, primarily driven by higher core service revenues and recurring fee-based income, partially offset by lower interest income amid the prevailing lower interest-rate environment.

Net income rose by 2.55% to ₱261.63 million, supported by revenue expansion and disciplined cost management. Annualized return on average equity (ROE) fell slightly to 21.30% in the first half of 2026. Notwithstanding the modest decline, the Parent Company continued to generate a strong return on its equity base while maintaining sufficient resources to support its operations and strategic initiatives.

The Parent Company maintained a strong regulatory capital position, with a Risk-Based Capital Adequacy Ratio (RBCA) of 548.33% as of June 30, 2026, well above the minimum requirement of 110.00%.

Material Changes in Financial Condition (June 30, 2026 vs December 31, 2025)

Consolidated assets increased by 6.24% to ₱12.87 billion as of end-June 2026. Cash and cash equivalents, which is 47.31% of consolidated assets, decreased by 33.71% to ₱6.09 billion. This is primarily due to the deliberate redeployment of excess liquidity into higher-yielding instruments. This was reflected in the 247.14% increase in investment securities at amortized cost to ₱5.39 billion and the 13.92% increase in financial assets at fair value through profit or loss to ₱164.41 million. This represents a reallocation of liquid resources rather than a reduction in overall liquidity, allowing the Group to optimize investment returns amid a lower interest-rate environment while maintaining sufficient funds for operating and regulatory requirements. The Group's substantial remaining cash position and liquid investment portfolio continue to provide adequate financial flexibility to support its operations.

Trade receivables increased modestly by 1.14% to ₱881.98 million, mainly reflecting normal fluctuations in client trading activity. Receivables from postpaid customers increased by 57.07%, or ₱21.03 million, while margin receivables rose by 3.17%, bringing total customer receivables higher by 5.61% to ₱881.05 million. The increase in customer receivables was largely offset by the absence of receivables from the clearing house, compared with ₱37.15 million as of year-end 2025, as customer trades resulted in a net buying position during the last two trading days of June 2026.

On the other hand, other receivables decreased by 13.14% to ₱84.33 million, primarily due to lower accrued interest income and reduced fund-related settlement activity during the period.

Prepayments increased by 15.31% to ₱11.92 million, mainly due to a ₱7.47 million increase in prepaid taxes. The increase primarily relates to final withholding taxes paid upon the acquisition of government Treasury bills, which are recognized over the term of the related investments, as well as local business taxes applicable to succeeding periods. This was partly offset by the normal amortization of insurance and other service prepayments.

Other current assets increased by 6.77% to ₱29.85 million, mainly due to ₱1.97 million of unutilized creditable withholding taxes. During the period, the Parent Company prioritized the utilization of available prior-year net operating loss carryover (NOLCO) to offset taxable income, which reduced the current income tax liability and, consequently, the amount of creditable withholding taxes that could be applied. The remaining tax credits are available for application against future income tax liabilities.

Property and equipment increased by 2.09% to ₱95.45 million, reflecting continued capital expenditures and right-of-use asset additions during the period. Capital spending remained focused on strengthening platform resilience, business continuity and operating efficiency as the brokerage business continues to scale.

Net deferred income tax assets decreased by 36.36% to ₱20.23 million, mainly due to the utilization of a portion of the Parent Company's available NOLCO against taxable income during the period. This resulted in the realization of the related deferred tax benefit and a corresponding reduction in the deferred tax asset.

Other noncurrent assets increased by 1.94% to ₱72.67 million, primarily due to ₱1.47 million in additional refundable contributions to the Clearing and Trade Guaranty Fund (CTGF) during the period, reflecting the higher level of trading and clearing activity.

Trade payables increased by 9.37% to ₱10.24 billion, primarily due to higher customers' undeployed funds, which reached ₱10.15 billion at period-end. The increase reflected stronger client funding during the first half of 2026, including ₱2.80 billion of net client inflows, as well as approximately ₱2.50 billion of cash dividends credited to customer accounts. These inflows supported the higher client cash balance despite the continued deployment of funds into trading and other investment activities during the period. Payables to the clearing house, likewise, increased by ₱66.74 million, or 215.96%, reflecting customers' higher net buying position during the last two trading days of June 2026 and the corresponding unsettled settlement obligations at period-end.

Other current liabilities decreased by 22.44% to ₱114.96 million, mainly due to the settlement of accrued expenses and management bonuses outstanding at year-end, together with lower fund-related settlement obligations as of June 30, 2026. These decreases were partly offset by higher taxes payable, unposted customer deposits and other trading-related liabilities. Overall, the movement largely reflects the timing of payments, settlements and transaction cut-offs during the period.

Stockholders' equity decreased by 3.34% to ₱2.43 billion, mainly as the ₱345.70 million cash dividend paid in June 2026 exceeded the ₱261.63 million net income generated during the period. The movement primarily reflects the distribution of accumulated earnings to shareholders, rather than a deterioration in operating performance.

Material Changes in the Results of Operations (June 30, 2026 vs June 30, 2025)

Consolidated revenues increased by 5.43% to ₱592.72 million during the first half of 2026, driven mainly by stronger brokerage revenues and continued growth in recurring fee-based income. The improvement reflects higher client activity in the Parent Company's core businesses, while interest income remained relatively resilient despite the lower interest-rate environment. Overall, the revenue mix continued to broaden, with activity-driven and recurring revenues contributing a larger share of the Group's growth.

Commission income increased by 21.07% to ₱234.46 million, supported by higher value turnover during the period. Despite generally challenging market conditions, trading activity improved, particularly during the earlier part of the year, resulting in stronger brokerage revenues compared with the same period in 2025. This underscores the continued importance of client participation and trading activity to the performance of the Parent Company's core brokerage business.

Trail fees increased by 35.45% to ₱17.50 million, supported by the 29.15% growth in fund assets under administration to ₱7.78 billion. The increase reflects the continued expansion of assets held through the Parent Company's fund platform, providing a growing source of recurring revenue alongside transaction-based brokerage income.

Interest income decreased by 4.24% to ₱324.41 million, mainly reflecting the lower interest-rate environment and lower average utilization of margin facilities. Interest income from special time deposits and fixed-income securities declined by only 3.17% to ₱293.02 million despite lower market yields, reflecting prudent management of available cash and liquidity in the ordinary course of business. Interest income from customers decreased by 13.26% to ₱31.39 million as average margin utilization remained below the prior-year level, with clients generally more cautious in their use of leverage during the period.

Total expenses increased by 10.59% to ₱257.59 million, primarily reflecting continued investments supporting business operations and higher activity-driven costs consistent with increased customer trading volumes.

Personnel expenses, which comprise the largest share of total costs, increased by 11.06% to ₱106.47 million, primarily due to the salary adjustments implemented during the period to maintain market competitiveness and support employee retention. The increase also reflects the normal timing effect of personnel movements between the comparative periods, including the full-period recognition of employees hired during the second half of 2025 and the first half of 2026. Overall, the increase is attributable to Management's planned investment in human capital to support the Group's operational requirements and long-term growth.

Trading-related expenses increased in line with higher client trading activity. Stock exchange dues and fees rose by 22.64% to ₱19.03 million. Commission and trail-related expenses, likewise, increased by 25.86% to ₱20.62 million, consistent with the higher agency trading volume and fund AUA during the period. These increases are largely volume-driven and variable in nature, representing costs associated with the growth in the Parent Company's core revenue-generating activities rather than an expansion in its fixed cost base.

Professional fees increased by 4.24% to ₱23.46 million, primarily due to higher IT and cybersecurity consultancy costs. The additional investment was undertaken to strengthen the security, resilience, and reliability of the Parent Company's online trading platform as client activity and digital operations continue to grow. In addition, communication expenses grew by 7.16% to ₱22.60 million, primarily due to higher spending on cybersecurity and platform protection services following the expansion of the Parent Company's digital infrastructure. The increase reflects Management's continuing efforts to enhance the Parent Company's technology environment and safeguard its online services.

Rental and utilities expenses increased by ₱1.85 million and ₱0.44 million, respectively, primarily due to additional technology infrastructure costs associated with the Parent Company's ongoing technology initiatives, as well as higher occupancy-related expenses following the full utilization of its expanded office facilities. Utility costs likewise increased due to higher electricity consumption resulting from increased onsite operations and higher power rates during the period. Overall, the increase reflects the Parent Company's continued investment in maintaining the infrastructure necessary to support its operations.

Depreciation and amortization rose by 9.79% to ₱21.60 million, primarily due to the continued depreciation of technology assets acquired to strengthen the Parent Company's infrastructure and replace aging equipment, as well as completed office improvements placed into service during the latter part of the prior year. The increase reflects the normal recognition of prior capital investments and is consistent with Management's continuing efforts to modernize the Parent Company's technology and operating environment.

On the other hand, training, seminar, and meeting costs decreased by 61.14% to ₱0.73 million, mainly due to the completion of several key programs and initiatives in prior periods. As a result, related training and meeting activities normalized during the quarter, reflecting the timing of capability-building initiatives rather than a reduction in the Parent Company's commitment to employee development and organizational support.

Loss on sale of investment securities at amortized cost decreased by 91.43% to ₱0.46 million, mainly because the comparative period included a higher realized loss arising from a specific Treasury repositioning undertaken in early part of 2025. The repositioning involved the sale of a lower-yielding government security and the reinvestment of the proceeds into a higher-yielding, longer-tenor government security to take advantage of more favorable market yields and improve prospective interest returns.

Provision for income taxes increased by 5.89% to ₱72.52 million, mainly driven by higher deferred tax expense arising from the partial utilization of the Parent Company's remaining

NOLCO from prior year. The utilization of these carryforward tax benefits reflects the Group's continued ability to generate taxable income during the period. This increase more than offset the reduction in final taxes on interest income from fund placements as market yields normalized, as well as the lower current income tax for the six-month period. Overall, the movement reflects the changing composition of the Parent Company's earnings and tax base, with deferred tax adjustments becoming a more significant component of the total tax provision during the period.

Consequently, consolidated net income grew by 2.55% to ₱261.63 million, supported by the continued improvement in revenue quality, particularly from higher activity-driven and recurring revenue streams, alongside disciplined cost management and prudent resource utilization. While total expenses increased during the period due to continued investments in talent, operational support, platform capabilities, and other activity-related costs associated with higher client engagement, expense growth remained relatively measured compared with the expansion in business activity. This allowed the Group to sustain healthy profitability and operating efficiency, with revenue growth continuing to absorb these strategic operating investments despite the naturally higher direct costs associated with core operating revenues.

Other Matters

- a. COL is not aware of any known trends, demands, commitments, events, or uncertainties that would have a material impact on the Group's liquidity. The Group has not defaulted on its obligations, which primarily arise from withdrawals made by customers. Furthermore, the obligations of the Parent Company are fully funded in compliance with SRC Rule 49.2. As COLHK is in the process of dissolution and all customer funds have been returned, COLHK is no longer required to maintain a fund for the exclusive benefit of its customers.
- b. COL is not aware of any events that will trigger direct or contingent financial obligation that is material to the Group, including any default or acceleration of an obligation.
- c. COL is not aware of any material off-balance sheet transactions, arrangements, obligations (including contingent obligations) and other relationships of the Group with other persons created during the reporting period.
- d. COL is not aware of any material commitments for capital expenditures.
- e. COL is not aware of any known trends, events, or uncertainties that have had or that are reasonably expected to have a material favorable or unfavorable impact on net sales or revenues or income from continuing operations of the Group.
- f. COL is not aware of any significant elements of income or loss that did not arise from the Group's continuing operations.
- g. COL is not aware of any seasonal aspects that had a material effect on the financial condition or results of operations of the Group.

PART II – OTHER INFORMATION

COL FINANCIAL GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Corporate Information

COL Financial Group, Inc. (the Parent Company or COL Financial), a public company listed in the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE), was registered with the Philippine Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on August 16, 1999. Its principal office is located at Unit 2401-B East Tower, Tektite Towers, Exchange Road, Ortigas Center, Pasig City, Philippines. The Parent Company became a clearing member of the Securities Clearing Corporation of the Philippines (SCCP) and started operating its own seat as a Trading Participant in the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE) on February 16, 2009.

COL Financial and its subsidiaries, collectively referred hereinto as the “Group”, is primarily engaged in offering stock brokerage and fund distribution services through innovative internet technology. The Group is also engaged in providing financial advice, in the gathering and distribution of financial and investment information and statistics and in acting as financial, commercial or business representative.

2. Basis of Preparation, Statement of Compliance and Summary of Significant Accounting Principles

Basis of Preparation

The accompanying interim consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards Accounting Standards (PFRS). The Group’s interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Philippine Accounting Standards (PAS) 34, Interim Financial Reporting.

The interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL) which have been measured at fair value. The Group’s interim consolidated financial statements are presented in Philippine peso (PHP), which is the presentation currency under PFRS. Based on the economic substance of the underlying circumstances relevant to the Group, the functional currency of the Group has been determined to be Philippine peso, except for COL Securities (HK) Limited (COLHK) whose functional currency has been determined to be HK dollar (HK$). All values are rounded to the nearest peso, except when otherwise indicated.

Basis of Consolidation

The interim consolidated financial statements comprise the accounts of the Parent Company and its subsidiaries as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, after eliminating significant intercompany balances and transactions. The following are the wholly-owned and majority-owned foreign and domestic subsidiaries (collectively referred hereinto as the “Subsidiaries”) of COL Financial:

Name of Subsidiaries	Principal Place of Business and Country of Incorporation	Effective Percentage of Ownership		Functional Currency
		2026	2025
COLHK	Hong Kong	–%	100.00%	HK$
COL Investment Management, Inc. (CIMI)	Philippines	80.00%	80.00%	PHP
COL Equity Index Unitized Mutual Fund, Inc. (CEIUMF)	Philippines	100.00%	100.00%	PHP
COL Strategic Growth Equity Unitized Mutual Fund, Inc. (CSGEUMF)	Philippines	100.00%	100.00%	PHP

On May 30, 2024, the operations of COLHK were terminated, as approved by the BOD of the Parent Company. On March 3, 2025, the Hong Kong Companies Registry approved the capital reduction of COLHK, lowering its capital stock to HK$5,000,000. Subsequently, on April 7, 2025, the Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) revoked COLHK's license to conduct regulated activities. On November 26, 2025, the Companies Registry acknowledged the receipt of COLHK's application for deregistration following the Inland Revenue Department's (IRD) issuance of a notice of no objection to deregister. By the end of December 2025, return of investment totaling ₱226,579,784 was transferred to the Parent Company. On April 17, 2026, the Parent Company received the formal deregistration notice from the Companies Registry.

CEIUMF and CSGEUMF started offering its Units of Participation on October 4, 2022 and October 6, 2023, respectively. The assets and liabilities held by CEIUMF and CSGEUMF in relation to the investment of the unitholders as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 are presented in Note 26.

Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Specifically, the Group controls an investee if and only if the Group has:

- Power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give it the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee);
- Exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- The ability to use its power over the investee to affect the amount of the Parent Company's returns.

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights result in control. To support this presumption and when the Group has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- The contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- Rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- The Group's voting rights and potential voting rights.

The Group re-assesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control. Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the interim consolidated financial statements from the date the Group gains control until the date the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income (OCI) are attributed to the equity holders of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with the Group's accounting policies. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognizes the related assets (including goodwill), liabilities, non-controlling interest and other components of equity while any resulting gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss. Any investment retained is recognized at fair value.

Non-Controlling Interest

Non-controlling interest represents the portion of profit or loss and net assets not owned, directly or indirectly, by the Parent Company and are presented in the consolidated statement of income, consolidated statement of comprehensive income, and within equity in the consolidated statement of financial position, separately from equity attributable to the Parent Company.

Changes in Accounting Policies and Disclosures

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year, except for the adoption of new standards effective in 2026. The Group has not early adopted any standard, interpretation or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective.

Unless otherwise indicated, adoption of these new standards did not have a significant impact on the interim consolidated financial statements of the Group.

- Amendments to Illustrative Examples on PFRS 7, PFRS 18, PAS 1, PAS 8, PAS 26 and PAS 37, Disclosures about Uncertainties in the Financial Statements
- Amendments to PFRS 9 and PFRS 7, Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments
- Annual Improvements to PFRS Accounting Standards—Volume 11
 - Amendments to PFRS 1, Hedge Accounting by a First-time Adopter
 - Amendments to PFRS 7, Gain or Loss on Derecognition
 - Amendments to PFRS 9, Lessee Derecognition of Lease Liabilities and Transaction Price
 - Amendments to PFRS 10, Determination of a 'De Facto Agent'
 - Amendments to PAS 7, Cost Method

Standards and Interpretations Issued but not yet Effective

Pronouncements issued but not yet effective are listed below. The Group does not expect that the future adoption of the said pronouncements will have a significant impact on its interim consolidated financial statements. The Group intends to adopt the following pronouncements when they become effective.

Effective beginning on or after January 1, 2027

- PFRS 17, Insurance Contracts
- PFRS 18, Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

The standard replaces PAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements and responds to investors' demand for better information about companies' financial performance. The new requirements include:

- Required totals, subtotals and new categories in the statement of profit or loss
 - Disclosure of management-defined performance measures
 - Guidance on aggregation and disaggregation
- PFRS 19, Subsidiaries without Public Accountability
 - Amendments to PAS 21, Translation to a Hyperinflationary Presentation Currency

Deferred effectivity

- Amendments to PFRS 10, Consolidated Financial Statements, and PAS 28, Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture

Summary of Material Accounting Policies

Foreign Currency Translation

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded in the prevailing functional currency spot rate at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the closing functional currency rate of exchange at the reporting period. All differences are taken to the consolidated statement of income.

On consolidation, the assets and liabilities of the consolidated foreign subsidiary are translated into Philippine Peso at the rate of exchange prevailing at the reporting date and their statement of income is translated at the average exchange rates for the year. The exchange differences arising on translation for consolidation are recognized in equity (under 'Accumulated translation adjustment'). Upon disposal of the foreign subsidiary, the component of OCI relating to the foreign subsidiary is recognized in the consolidated statement of income.

Current versus Noncurrent Classification

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position based on current/non-current classification. An asset is current when it is:

- Expected to be realized or intended to be sold or consumed in a normal operating cycle;
- Held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- Expected to be realized within 12 months after reporting period; or
- Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

All other assets are classified as noncurrent.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in a normal operating cycle;
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading;
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period; or
- There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

All other liabilities are classified as noncurrent.

Net deferred tax assets (liabilities) are classified as noncurrent.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash includes cash on hand and in banks. Cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with original maturities of three (3) months or less from dates of acquisition and that are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

Financial Instruments - Initial Recognition and Subsequent Measurement

Date of recognition

Financial instruments are any contracts that give rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity. Financial instruments are recognized in the consolidated statement of financial position when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace are recognized on the trade date.

Financial instruments at FVTPL

Financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL are recorded in the consolidated statement of financial position at fair value. Changes in fair value are recorded in 'Trading gains (losses) - net' in the consolidated statement of income. Interest earned or incurred is recorded in interest income or expense, respectively, while dividend income is recorded in other revenues according to the terms of the contract, or when the right of the payment has been established.

Initial recognition and classification of financial instruments

Financial assets are measured at FVTPL unless these are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI) or at amortized cost. Financial liabilities are classified as either financial liabilities at FVTPL or financial liabilities at amortized cost. The classification of financial assets depends on the contractual terms and the business model for managing the financial assets. Subsequent to initial recognition, the Group may reclassify its financial assets only when there is a change in its business model for managing these financial assets. Reclassification of financial liabilities is not allowed.

The Group determines its business model at the level that best reflects how it manages groups of financial assets to achieve its business objective. The Group's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios. As a second step of its classification process, the Group assesses the contractual terms of financial assets to identify whether they pass the contractual cash flows test (SPPI test).

Financial assets at amortized cost

Financial assets at amortized cost are debt financial assets that meet both of the following conditions: (i) these are held within a business model whose objective is to hold the financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and (ii) the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are SPPI on the outstanding principal amount. This accounting policy mainly relates to the consolidated statement of financial position captions 'Cash and cash equivalents', 'Trade receivables', 'Other receivables', 'Investment securities at amortized cost' and deposit and refundable contributions to Clearing and Trade Guarantee Fund (CTGF) and refundable deposits under 'Other noncurrent assets', which arise primarily from service revenues and other types of receivables.

After initial measurement, financial assets at amortized cost are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method, less impairment in value. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees that are an integral part of the EIR. The amortization is included in 'Interest income' in the consolidated statement of income. Gains and losses are recognized in statement of income when these investments are derecognized or impaired, as well as through the amortization process. The expected credit losses (ECL) are recognized in the statement of income under 'Provision for credit losses'. The effects of revaluation on foreign currency-denominated investments are recognized in the consolidated statement of income.

Reclassification of financial assets

The Group can only reclassify financial assets if the objective of its business model for managing those financial assets changes. Accordingly, the Group is required to reclassify financial assets: (i) from amortized cost to FVTPL, if the objective of the business model changes so that the amortized cost criteria are no longer met; and, (ii) from FVTPL to amortized cost, if the objective of the business model changes so that the amortized cost criteria start to be met and the characteristic of the instrument's contractual cash flows meet the amortized cost criteria.

A change in the objective of the Group's business model will be effected only at the beginning of the next reporting period following the change in the business model.

Fair Value Measurement

The Group measures financial instruments, such as financial assets at FVTPL, at fair value at each end of the reporting period. Also, fair values of financial instruments measured at amortized cost are disclosed in Note 23.

Fair value is the estimated price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the interim consolidated financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1 - Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable
- Level 3 - Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the interim consolidated financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between Levels in the hierarchy by re-assessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at each end of the reporting period.

The fair value of equity financial instruments that are actively traded in organized financial markets is determined by reference to quoted market close prices at the close of business of the reporting period.

For financial instruments where there is no active market, fair value is determined using valuation techniques. Such techniques include comparison to similar investments for which market observable prices exist and discounted cash flow analysis or other valuation models.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Group has determined classes of assets and liabilities on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset or liability and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above.

Trade Receivables and Payables

Trade receivables from customers, which include margin accounts, and payable to clearing house and other brokers arise from securities purchased (in a regular way transaction) that have been contracted for but not yet delivered and settled at the end of the reporting period. Payable to customers and receivable from clearing house and other brokers arise from securities sold (in a regular way transaction) that have been contracted for but not yet delivered and settled at the end of the reporting period. Refer to the accounting policy for 'Financial instruments' for recognition and measurement. The related security valuation shows all positions as of clearance date.

Derecognition of Financial Instruments

Financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognized when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired;
- the Group retains the right to receive cash flows from the asset, but has assumed an obligation to pay them in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; or

- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset and either (a) has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset and has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the asset is recognized to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement in the asset. Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or has expired.

Where an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability, and the difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the consolidated statement of income.

Impairment of Financial Assets

The Group recognizes an ECL for all debt instruments not held at FVTPL. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original EIR. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements that are integral to the contractual terms.

ECLs are recognized in two (2) stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

The Group calculates ECL either on an individual or a collective basis. The Group performs collective impairment by grouping exposures into smaller homogeneous portfolios based on a combination of borrower and account characteristics. Accounts with similar risk attributes (i.e. facility, security, credit rating, months-on-books, utilization and collateral type, etc.) are pooled together for calculation provisions based on the ECL models.

The Group assesses on a forward-looking basis the ECL associated with its debt instrument asset carried at amortized cost and the exposure arising from unutilized margin trading facility.

For trade receivables, the Group applies a simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Therefore, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognizes a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group uses a provision matrix that estimates provision rates per days past due bucket based on the SEC requirements, which considers the collateral securities with market value adjusted by certain factor, as required in the Group's risk-based capital calculation and incorporates forward-looking information. A broad range of forward-looking factors are considered as economic inputs, such as growth of the gross domestic product, inflation rates, unemployment rates, interest rates and Philippine Stock Exchange Composite Index (PSEi) statistical indicators.

For cash and cash equivalents, the Group applies the low credit risk simplification.

Generally, the Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows. Investment securities at amortized cost are considered in default upon occurrence of a credit event such as but not limited to bankruptcy of counterparty, restructuring, failure to pay on an agreed settlement date, or request for moratorium.

Offsetting of Financial Assets and Liabilities

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the consolidated statement of financial position if, and only if, there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognized amounts and the Group intends to either settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and the liability simultaneously. The Group assesses that it has a currently enforceable right of offset if the right is not contingent on a future event, and is legally enforceable in the normal course of business, event of default, and event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Group and all of the counterparties.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost, excluding the costs of day-to-day servicing, less accumulated depreciation and amortization and any accumulated impairment losses, if any.

Such cost includes the cost of replacing part of such property and equipment, if the recognition criteria are met.

The initial cost of property and equipment comprises its purchase price, including import duties, non-refundable taxes and any directly attributable costs of bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. Expenditures incurred after the property and equipment have been put into operations, such as repairs and maintenance, are normally charged against income in the period when the costs are incurred. In situations where it can be clearly demonstrated that the expenditures have resulted in an increase in the future economic benefits expected to be obtained from the use of an item of property and equipment beyond its originally assessed standard of performance, the expenditures are capitalized as additional costs of property and equipment.

Each part of an item of property and equipment with a cost that is significant in relation to the total cost of the item is depreciated separately.

Depreciation and amortization is computed on the straight-line basis over the following estimated useful lives of the assets:

Category	Number of Years
Online trading equipment and facilities	3-10
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	3-10
Transportation equipment	5
Leasehold improvements	5 or term of lease, whichever is shorter

The carrying values of property and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable.

An item of property and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in the consolidated statement of income in the year the asset is derecognized. The asset's residual values, if any, useful lives and methods are reviewed and adjusted if appropriate, at each end of the reporting period.

The Group recognizes right-of-use assets at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are initially measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The initial cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognized, initial direct costs incurred, lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received and estimate of costs to be incurred by the lessee in dismantling and removing the underlying asset, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, unless those costs are incurred to produce inventories.

Unless the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the leased asset at the end of the lease term, the recognized right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of their estimated useful life and lease term. Right-of-use assets are subject to impairment.

Investment Property

Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation (for depreciable investment properties) and impairment in value.

Investment properties are derecognized either when they have been disposed of or when they are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. The difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset is recognized in profit or loss in the period of derecognition.

Expenditures incurred after the investment properties have been put into operations, such as repairs and maintenance costs, are normally charged to operations in the year in which the costs are incurred.

Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis using the remaining useful lives from the time of acquisition of the investment properties based on appraisal reports but not to exceed 50 years for buildings and condominium units.

Transfers are made to (or from) investment property only when there is a change in use. For a transfer from investment property to owner-occupied property, the deemed cost for subsequent accounting is the fair value at the date of change in use. If owner-occupied property becomes an investment property, the Group accounts for such property in accordance with the policy stated under property and equipment up to the date of change in use.

Intangibles

Exchange trading rights

Exchange trading rights are carried at cost less any allowance for impairment losses and are reviewed for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying values may be impaired. The exchange trading rights are deemed to have indefinite useful lives as there is no foreseeable limit to the period over which the asset is expected to generate net cash inflows for the Group. The assessment of indefinite life is reviewed annually to determine whether the indefinite useful life continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis. The Parent Company does not intend to sell its exchange trading right in the near future while COLHK's exchange trading right is a nontransferable right.

Software costs

Costs related to software purchased by the Group for use in operations are amortized on a straight-line basis over the estimated life of three (3) to ten (10) years.

Impairment of Non-Financial Assets

The Group assesses at each end of the reporting period whether there is an indication that its prepayments, property and equipment, intangibles and other non-financial assets may be impaired. If any such indication exists or when the annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's value-in-use (VIU) or its fair value less costs to sell. The fair value less costs to sell is the amount obtainable from the sale of an asset at an arm's length transaction, while VIU is the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life. Where the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognized by a charge against current operations for the excess of the carrying amount of an asset over its recoverable amount in the year in which it arises.

Intangibles with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment annually at end of the reporting period either individually or at the cash generating unit level, as appropriate. Intangibles with finite lives are assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. A previously recognized impairment loss is reversed by a credit to current operations to the extent that it does not restate the asset to a carrying amount in excess of what would have been determined (net of any accumulated depreciation and amortization) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

Leases

Group as a lessee

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is or contains a lease. A contract contains a lease if it conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognizes lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right-of-use on the underlying assets.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognizes lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably certain to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognized as expense in the period on which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in the in-substance fixed lease payments or a change in the assessment to purchase the underlying asset.

Leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the leases of low-value assets recognition exemption to leases of office equipment that are considered of low value. Lease payments on leases of low-value assets are recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Group as a lessor

Leases where the lessor does not transfer substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating operating leases are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognized over the lease term on the same basis as the rental income.

Pretermination is defined as termination of lease contract by the lessee or lessor before the end of the lease term. In the case of pretermination of an operating lease, a lessor derecognizes the accrued rental receivable which is the effect of straight-line calculation of rental income and is charged against rental income in the consolidated statement of income.

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are made by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. Where discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as an interest expense.

Where the Group expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed, the reimbursement is recognized as a separate asset but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the consolidated statement of income, net of any reimbursement.

Capital Stock and Capital Paid-in Excess of Par Value

The Parent Company's capital stock is stated at par value and classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new capital stock are shown in equity as a deduction, net of any related tax benefit, from the proceeds.

Where the Group purchases the Parent Company's capital stock (treasury shares), the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of applicable taxes) is deducted from equity attributable to the Parent Company's stockholders until the shares are cancelled or reissued. Where such shares are subsequently reissued, any consideration received, net of any directly attributable incremental transaction costs and the related tax effects, is included in equity.

Amount of contribution in excess of par value is accounted for as a capital in excess of par value. Capital in excess of par value also arises from additional capital contribution from the stockholders.

Retained Earnings

Retained earnings are accumulated profits realized out of normal and continuous operations of the business after deducting therefrom distributions to stockholders and transfers to capital or other accounts. Cash dividends are recognized as a liability and a deduction from equity when approved by the Parent Company's BOD while stock dividends are recognized as a deduction from retained earnings when approved by the Parent Company's BOD and stockholders. Dividends for the year that are approved after the end of the reporting period are dealt with as an event after the end of the reporting period.

Retained earnings may also include retrospective effect of changes in accounting policy as may be required by the transitional provisions of the new or revised accounting policy.

Unappropriated retained earnings represent the accumulated profits and gains realized out of the normal and continuous operations of the Group after deducting therefrom distributions to stockholders and transfers to capital stocks or other accounts, and which are:

- Not appropriated by its BOD for corporate expansion projects or programs;
- Not covered by a restriction for dividend declaration under a loan agreement;
- Not required under special circumstances obtaining in the Group such as when there is a need for a special reserve for probable contingencies.

Appropriated retained earnings represent that portion which has been restricted and, therefore, not available for dividend declaration.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized upon performance of services to the customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those services.

The Group assesses its revenue arrangements against specific criteria in order to determine if it is acting as a principal or agent. The Group has concluded that it is the principal in all of its revenue arrangements except for its brokerage transactions. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognized:

Commissions

Commissions are recognized as income upon confirmation of trade deals. These are computed for every trade transaction based on a flat rate or a percentage of the amount of trading transaction, whichever is higher.

Trail fees

Trail fees are recognized as income as earned. These pertain to the revenue earned by the Parent Company from the distribution of mutual funds of various fund houses to its customers and are computed daily as a percentage of the total assets under administration for each fund.

Revenues outside the scope of PFRS 15

Interest

For all financial instruments measured at amortized cost, interest income is recorded using EIR, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, where appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset. The calculation takes into account all contractual terms of the financial instrument, including any fees or incremental costs that are directly attributable to the instrument and are an integral part of the EIR. The adjusted carrying amount is calculated based on the original EIR. The change in carrying amount is recorded as 'Interest income'.

Under PFRS 9, when a financial asset becomes credit-impaired, the Group calculates interest income by applying the EIR to the net amortized cost of the financial asset. If the financial asset cures and is no longer credit-impaired, the Group reverts to calculating interest income on a gross basis.

Trading gains - net

Results arising from trading activities include all gains and losses from changes in fair value for financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL and gains and losses from disposal of investment securities at FVTPL.

Unrealized trading gains and losses comprise changes in the fair value of financial instruments for the period and from reversal of prior period's unrealized gains and losses for financial instruments which were realized in the reporting period. Realized gains and losses on disposals of financial instruments classified as at FVTPL are calculated using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method. They represent the difference between an instrument's initial carrying amount and disposal amount.

Dividend

Dividend income is recognized when the right to receive payment is established, which is the date of declaration.

Other income

Revenue is recognized in the consolidated statement of income as they are earned.

Costs and Expenses

Costs and expenses are decreases in economic benefits during the accounting period in the form of outflows or decrease of assets or incurrence of liabilities that result in decreases in equity, other than those relating to distributions to equity participants. Cost of services such as commissions, direct personnel costs, stock exchange dues and fees, central depository fees, server maintenance costs, periodicals and other subscriptions costs, research costs, and communication costs are recognized when the related revenue is earned or when the service is rendered. The majority of operating expenses incurred by the Group such as indirect personnel costs, professional fees, computer services, and other operating expenses are overhead in nature and are recognized with regularity as the Group continues its operations.

Retirement Costs

Defined benefit plan

The Parent Company has a noncontributory defined benefit retirement plan.

The net defined benefit liability or asset is the aggregate of the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period reduced by the fair value of plan assets (if any), adjusted for any effect of limiting a net defined benefit asset to the asset ceiling. The asset ceiling is the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan.

The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plans is actuarially determined using the projected unit credit method. This method reflects service rendered by employees to the date of valuation and incorporates assumptions concerning the employees' projected salaries.

Defined benefit costs comprise the following:

- Service cost
- Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset
- Remeasurements of net defined benefit liability or asset

Service costs which include current service cost, past service costs and gains or losses on non-routine settlements are recognized as 'Retirement costs' under 'Personnel costs'. Past service costs are recognized when plan amendment or curtailment occurs.

Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset is the change during the period in the net defined benefit liability or asset that arises from the passage of time which is determined by applying the discount rate based on government bonds to the net defined benefit liability or asset. Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset is recognized as 'Interest expense' in the consolidated statement of income.

Remeasurements comprising actuarial gains and losses, return on plan assets and any change in the effect of the asset ceiling (excluding net interest on defined benefit liability) are recognized immediately in OCI in the period in which they arise. Remeasurements are not reclassified to the consolidated statement of income in subsequent periods. Remeasurements recognized in OCI are retained in OCI which are presented as 'Gain (loss) on remeasurement of retirement obligation' under equity.

Plan assets are assets that are held by a long-term employee benefit fund or qualifying insurance policies. Plan assets are not available to the creditors of the Group, nor can they be paid directly to the Group. Fair value of plan assets is based on market price information. When no market price is available, the fair value of plan assets is estimated by discounting expected future cash flows using a discount rate that reflects both the risk associated with the plan assets and the maturity or expected disposal date of those assets (or, if they have no maturity, the expected period until the settlement of the related obligations). If the fair value of the plan assets is higher than the present value of the defined benefit obligation, the measurement of the resulting defined benefit asset is limited to the present value of economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan.

The Group's right to be reimbursed of some or all of the expenditure required to settle a defined benefit obligation is recognized as a separate asset at fair value when and only when reimbursement is virtually certain.

Defined contribution plan

The retirement plan of COLHK is a defined contribution retirement plan. Under a defined contribution retirement plan, the entity's legal and constructive obligation is limited to the amount that it agrees to contribute to the fund. Thus, the amount of the post-employment benefits received by the employee is determined by the amount of contributions paid by an entity to a post-employment benefit plan, together with investment returns arising from the contributions. Consequently, actuarial risk (that benefits will be less than expected) and investment risk (that assets invested will be sufficient to meet expected benefits) fall on the employee.

The standard requires an entity to recognize short-term employee benefits when an employee has rendered service in exchange of those benefits.

Earnings per Share (EPS)

Basic EPS is computed by dividing earnings applicable to common stock by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding, after giving retroactive effect for any stock dividends, stock splits or reverse stock splits during the year.

Diluted EPS is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year, after giving retroactive effect for any stock dividends, stock splits or reverse stock splits during the year, and adjusted for the effect of dilutive options.

Outstanding share options granted under the Parent Company's share options plan (SOP) will have a dilutive effect under the treasury stock method only when the average market price of the underlying common share during the period exceeds the exercise price of the option. Where the effect of the exercise of all outstanding options has anti-dilutive effect, basic and diluted EPS are stated at the same amount.

Potential ordinary shares are weighted for the period they are outstanding. Potential ordinary shares that are converted into ordinary shares during the period are included in the calculation of diluted EPS from the beginning of the period to the date of conversion; from the date of conversion, the resulting ordinary shares are included in both basic and diluted EPS.

Taxes

Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The income tax rates and income tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretations and establishes provisions where appropriate.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided, using the balance sheet liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences. With respect to investments in foreign subsidiaries, deferred income tax liabilities are recognized except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences including net loss carry-over to the extent that it is probable that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Deferred income tax, however, is not recognized on temporary differences that arise from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting income nor the taxable income or loss.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at each end of the reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient future taxable income will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilized. Unrecognized deferred income tax assets are reassessed at each end of the reporting period and are recognized to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable income will allow the deferred income tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are applicable to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on income tax rates and income tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period.

Deferred income tax relating to items recognized directly in equity is also recognized in equity. Deferred income tax items are recognized in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to offset current income tax assets against current income tax liabilities and deferred income taxes related to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

Contingencies

Contingent liabilities are not recognized in the interim consolidated financial statements. These are disclosed unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote. Contingent assets are not recognized in the interim consolidated financial statements but are disclosed when an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Segment Reporting

The Group's operating businesses are organized and managed separately according to the nature of the products and services provided, with each segment representing a strategic business unit that offers different products and serves different markets. Financial information on business segments is presented in Note 25.

Events After the End of the Reporting Period

Post year-end events that provide additional information about the Group's position at the end of the reporting period (adjusting events) are reflected in the interim consolidated financial statements. Post year-end events that are not adjusting events are disclosed when material.

3. Significant Accounting Judgments, Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of the interim consolidated financial statements in accordance with PFRS requires the Group to make judgments and estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and contingent liabilities. Future events may occur which will cause the judgments and assumptions used in arriving at the estimates to change. The effects of any change in judgments and estimates are reflected in the interim consolidated financial statements as they become reasonably determinable.

Judgments and estimates and assumptions are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. However, actual outcome can differ from these estimates.

The following are the critical judgments and key assumptions that have a significant risk of material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year:

Judgments

Offsetting of financial assets and liabilities

The Group considers its compliance with the offsetting criteria as a significant judgment in presenting financial assets and liabilities in its consolidated statement of financial position. In making such assessment, the Group determines at each financial asset and liability the existence of an enforceable legal right to offset and if there is an intention to settle on a net basis and to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Estimates and Assumptions

Impairment of the intangibles

Intangibles include exchange trading rights which are carried at cost less any allowance for impairment loss. Exchange trading rights are reviewed for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying values may be impaired. The exchange trading rights are deemed to have indefinite useful lives as there is no foreseeable limit to the period over which the asset is expected to generate net cash inflows for the Group.

The key assumptions used to determine the recoverable amount of the Group's exchange trading rights are further explained in Note 10. The Parent Company does not intend to sell its exchange trading right in the near future. As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the carrying values of intangibles are disclosed in Note 10.

Estimating recoverability of deferred income tax assets

Deferred income tax assets are recognized for all unused tax losses and temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilized. The Group reviews the carrying amounts of deferred income tax assets at each end of the reporting period and reduces deferred income tax assets to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient future taxable income will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax assets to be utilized. Significant management judgment is required to determine the amount of deferred income tax assets that can be recognized, based upon the likely timing and level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies. In the case of the Parent Company, management has to assess annually, for income tax purposes, the method of deduction that it should use in order to determine the impact of the temporary differences and the applicable effective tax rate. The deferred income tax assets (liabilities) as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 are disclosed in Note 18.

Determining retirement obligation

The costs of defined retirement obligation as well as the present value of the defined benefit obligation are determined using actuarial valuations. The actuarial valuation involves making various assumptions. These include the determination of the discount rates, future salary increases, mortality rates and future retirement increases. Due to the complexity of the valuation, the underlying assumptions and its long-term nature, defined benefit obligation are highly sensitive to changes in these assumptions.

In determining the appropriate discount rate, Management considers the interest rates of government bonds that are denominated in the currency in which the benefits will be paid, with extrapolated maturities corresponding to the expected duration of the defined benefit obligation.

4. Cash and Cash Equivalents

This account consists of:

	June 30, 2026 (Unaudited)	December 31, 2025 (Audited)
Cash on hand and in banks	₱235,427,410	₱299,972,509
Cash equivalents	5,851,463,556	8,882,200,681
	₱6,086,890,966	₱9,182,173,190

Cash in banks earn interest at the respective bank deposit rates. Cash equivalents are composed of short-term cash investments with varying periods of up to three (3) months depending on the Group's immediate cash requirements, and earn interest at 2.50% to 5.30% per annum during the six-month period in 2026 and 3.25% to 6.38% per annum during the twelve-month period in 2025. The Parent Company has United States dollar (US$)-denominated cash in banks amounting to US$1,095 and US$1,084 as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively.

In compliance with Securities Regulation Code (SRC) Rule 49.2 covering customer protection and custody of securities, the Parent Company maintains special reserve accounts for its customers amounting to ₱9,864,517,961 and ₱9,092,631,492 as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively. The special reserve accounts consist of cash in banks and short-term cash investments which are recorded as 'Cash and cash equivalents,' and short-term government debt securities recorded as 'Investment securities at amortized cost' (Note 7). The Parent Company's reserve requirement is determined based on the SEC's prescribed computations. As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the Parent Company's reserve accounts are adequate to cover its reserve requirements.

Interest income of the Group from cash and cash equivalents amounted to ₱180,973,299 and ₱264,457,594 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively (Note 15).

5. Financial Assets at FVTPL

This account consists of:

	June 30, 2026 (Unaudited)	December 31, 2025 (Audited)
Mutual funds	₱89,707,082	₱68,332,119

Listed equity securities	547,030	466,749
	₱164,414,117	₱144,326,929

The peso-denominated government debt securities pertain to government bonds which bear nominal interest rates ranging from 4.63% to 9.25% per annum during the six-month period in 2026 and twelve-month period in 2025. Interest income earned from the investments amounted to ₱2,089,043 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026 and 2025 (Note 15).

The dividend income included under 'Other revenues' received from investments in mutual funds and shares of stocks of companies listed in the PSE amounted to ₱3,654 and ₱2,252 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively (Note 15).

The Group's net trading gains (losses) follow:

	June 30, 2026 (Unaudited)	June 30, 2025 (Unaudited)
Unrealized trading gains (losses)	(₱281,738)	₱1,769,468
Trading gains (losses) from sale	53,383	(18,537)

Less allowance for credit losses on receivable from customers	2,601,775		2,043,991
	₱878,447,437		₱832,179,552

As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the Parent Company offered a credit line facility amounting to ₱6,051,949,950 and ₱6,089,874,950, respectively, to its customers who qualified for margin accounts.

Trade receivables from margin customers have no specific credit terms but customers are required to maintain the value of their collateral within a specific level. Once the value of the collateral falls below this level, customers may either deposit additional collateral or sell stock to cover the deficiency in their account balance. Meanwhile, receivables from postpaid customers are required to be settled on two (2) trading days' term for the Parent Company. The receivable balances become demandable upon failure of the customer to duly comply with these requirements. As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, ₱845,253,507 and ₱798,872,962, respectively, of the total trade receivables from customers are fully covered by collateral.

Interest income from customers who availed of this margin facility amounted to ₱31,393,700 and ₱36,190,977 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively (Note 15).

Trade receivables from clearing house as at December 31, 2025 were fully collected in January 2026.

Receivables from mutual fund managers represent compensation for selling mutual funds to its customers. The fee is calculated daily and collected monthly.

	₱5,393,123,544	₱1,553,565,551

The peso-denominated government debt securities bear nominal annual interest rate of 4.62% to 8.00% per annum during the six-month period in 2026 and from 4.62% to 6.62% per annum during the twelve-month period in 2025, with an EIR from 4.80% to 7.50% per annum during the six-month period in 2026 and from 5.18% to 6.38% per annum during the twelve-month period in 2025. The peso-denominated investment in corporate debt securities bear a nominal and effective interest rate of 5.71% to 6.00 per annum during the six-month period in 2026. Amortization of discount and premium from these investments amounted to ₱92,718 and ₱1,222,780 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

Sale of government debt securities resulted in a loss amounting to ₱457,711 and ₱5,338,232 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

The outstanding investments in short-term government debt securities amounting to ₱3,836,296,189 and nil as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively, are included in the Parent Company's special reserve accounts in compliance with SRC Rule 49.2 (Note 4).

The Group's investments in government securities are considered of low credit risk since these are rated by an international credit rating company as Baa2, which is considered as 'Investment Grade.'

Interest income earned from these investments amounted to ₱109,955,793 and ₱36,051,149 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively (Note 15).

The benefits are based on a certain percentage of the final monthly basic salary for every year of credited service of the employees. The defined retirement benefit obligation is determined using the projected unit credit method. There was no plan termination, curtailment or settlement as of June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

Under the existing regulatory framework, RA 7641, The Retirement Pay Law, requires a provision for retirement pay to qualified private sector employees in the absence of any retirement plan in the entity, provided however that the employee's retirement benefits under any collective bargaining and other agreements shall not be less than those provided under the law. The law does not require minimum funding of the plan.

18. Income Taxes

Income taxes include the corporate income tax, as discussed below, and final taxes paid at the rate of 20.00% for interest income on Peso cash deposits and short-term placements and 15.00% for interest income on foreign currency cash deposits and short-term placements. Under RA No. 12214, otherwise known as Capital Markets Efficiency Promotion Act (CMEPA), effective July 1, 2025, the final tax on any currency deposits, regardless of tenure is at 20.00%. These income taxes, as well as the deferred tax benefits and provisions, are presented as 'Provision for income tax' in the parent company statements of income.

Provision for income tax consists of:

	June 30, 2026 (Unaudited)	June 30, 2025 (Unaudited)
Current:
Final income tax	₱58,585,084	₱60,481,885
Corporate income tax	2,686,486	3,760,104
Deferred	11,248,075	4,244,273
	₱72,519,645	₱68,486,262

In 2026 and 2025, the Parent Company availed of the itemized deduction method in calculating the allowed deductions for income tax purposes.

On March 26, 2021, Republic Act (RA) No. 11534, otherwise known as Corporate Recovery and Tax Incentives for Enterprises (CREATE) Act was signed into law. CREATE reduced the regular corporate income tax (RCIT) rate from 30.00% to 25.00% for domestic and resident foreign corporations. For domestic corporations with net taxable income not exceeding ₱5,000,000 and with total assets not exceeding ₱100,000,000 (excluding land on which the business entity's office, plant and equipment are situated) during the taxable year, the RCIT rate is reduced to 20.00%.

The regulations also provide for MCIT of 2.00% (prior to CREATE) and 1.00% (from July 1, 2020 to June 30, 2023 before reverting to 2.00%) on modified gross income and allow a net operating loss carryover (NOLCO). The MCIT and NOLCO may be applied against the Parent Company's and its domestic subsidiaries' income tax liability and taxable income, respectively, over a three-year period from the year of inception. For the taxable years 2020 and 2021, the NOLCO incurred can be carried over as a deduction for the next five (5) consecutive taxable years, pursuant to Revenue Regulations (RR) No. 25-2020.

Deferred Income Taxes

The components of the Group's net deferred income tax assets (liabilities) follow:

	June 30, 2026 (Unaudited)	December 31, 2025 (Audited)
Deferred income tax assets
Retirement obligation	₱17,191,019	₱18,698,473
Leases liabilities	9,277,370	10,872,451
NOLCO	2,473,543	12,610,554
	28,941,932	42,181,478
Deferred income tax liabilities
Right-of-use assets	(8,628,721)	(10,309,007)
Unrealized trading gains	(83,848)	(392,360)
Others	(1,450)	(4,124)
	(8,714,019)	(10,705,491)
	₱20,227,913	₱31,475,987

Realization of the future tax benefits related to the net deferred income tax assets is dependent on many factors, including the Group's ability to generate taxable income, within the carry-over period (Note 3).

Unrecognized deferred income tax assets

The Group did not recognize deferred income tax assets on the following temporary differences since Management believes that it is not probable that the related benefits will be realized in the future:

	June 30, 2026 (Unaudited)	December 31, 2025 (Audited)
NOLCO	₱29,831,639	₱20,960,296
MCIT	16,325,355	13,638,869
Allowance for credit losses (Note 6)	2,601,775	2,043,991

Trade receivables from related parties under margin accounts are interest-bearing, not guaranteed but secured by shares of stocks (except for trade receivables amounting to ₱9,745 and ₱9,769, which were unsecured as of June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively (Note 6). The trade receivables from related parties are not impaired.
- b. As of June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the Parent Company has employee salary loans and advances amounting to ₱2,105,816 and ₱2,562,484, respectively, presented under 'Other receivables' (Note 6). These advances are granted to eligible employees in accordance with Parent Company policy, are unsecured, and are generally settled through monthly payments, with any outstanding balance due upon separation from service.
- c. Compensation of key management personnel of the Group pertains to short-term employee benefits which amounted to ₱28,675,109 and ₱21,499,023 for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

20. Leases

The Group leases its office premises under separate operating lease agreements expiring on various dates and whose lease terms are negotiated every one (1) to three (3) years.

The Group applied a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases. Set-out below are the carrying amount of lease liabilities and the movements during the period:

	June 30, 2026 (Unaudited)	December 31, 2025 (Audited)
At beginning of period	₱43,540,875	₱26,939,597

21. Capital Management

The primary objective of the Parent Company's capital management is to ensure that the Parent Company maintains healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and pay existing obligations and maximize shareholder value. The Parent Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, in light of changes in economic conditions. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes for the periods ended June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

The Amended Implementing Rules and Regulations of the SRC effective March 6, 2004 include, among others, revisions in the terms and conditions for registration and subsequent renewal of license applicable to both exchange trading participants and non-exchange broker dealers as follows: (a) to allow a net capital of ₱2,500,000 or 2.50% of aggregate indebtedness, whichever is higher, for broker dealers dealing only in proprietary shares and not holding securities, (b) to allow the SEC to set a different net capital requirement for those authorized to use the Risk-Based Capital Adequacy (RBCA) model, and (c) to require unimpaired paid-up capital of ₱100,000,000 for broker dealers, which are either first time registrants or those acquiring existing broker dealer firms and will participate in a registered clearing agency; ₱10,000,000 plus a surety bond for existing broker dealers not engaged in market making transactions; and ₱2,500,000 for broker dealers dealing only in proprietary shares and not holding securities.

The SEC approved Memorandum Circular No. 16 dated November 11, 2004 which provides the guidelines on the adoption in the Philippines of the RBCA Framework for all registered brokers dealers in accordance with SRC. These guidelines cover the following risks: (a) position or market risk, (b) credit risks such as counterparty, settlement, large exposure, and margin financing risks, and (c) operational risk.

The Parent Company being a registered broker dealer in securities is subject to the stringent rules of the SEC and other regulatory agencies with respect to the maintenance of specific levels of RBCA ratios. RBCA is a ratio that compares the broker dealer's total measured risk to its liquid capital. As a rule, the Parent Company must maintain an RBCA ratio of at least one hundred ten percent (110.00%) and a net liquid capital (NLC) of at least ₱5,000,000 or five percent (5.00%) of its aggregate indebtedness, whichever is higher. Also, the Aggregated Indebtedness (AI) of every broker dealer should not exceed two thousand percent (2,000.00%) of its NLC. In the event that the minimum RBCA ratio of one hundred ten percent (110.00%) or the minimum NLC is breached, the Parent Company shall immediately cease doing business as a broker dealer and shall notify the PSE and SEC. As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the Parent Company is compliant with the foregoing requirements.

The Parent Company's capital pertains to equity per books adjusted for deferred income tax assets and assets not readily convertible into cash.

The RBCA ratio of the Parent Company as of June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 are as follows:

	June 30, 2026 (Unaudited)	December 31, 2025 (Audited)
Equity eligible for net liquid capital	₱2,398,141,345	₱2,467,141,729
Less: Ineligible Assets	616,326,825	435,173,180
NLC	₱1,781,814,520	₱2,031,968,549
Position risk	₱45,487,089	₱47,034,289
Operational risk	204,308,295	180,673,740
Large exposure risk	75,156,199	26,727,729
Total Risk Capital Requirement (TRCR)	₱324,951,583	₱254,435,758
AI	₱10,420,823,934	₱9,554,045,923
5.00% of AI	₱521,041,197	₱477,702,296
Required NLC	₱521,041,197	₱477,702,296
Net Risk-Based Capital Excess	₱1,260,773,323	₱1,554,266,253
Ratio of AI to NLC	584.84%	470.19%
RBCA ratio (NLC/TRCR)	548.33%	798.62%

The following are the definition of terms used in the above computation:

1. Ineligible assets

These pertain to fixed assets and assets which cannot be readily converted into cash.

2. Operational risk requirement

The amount required to cover a level of operational risk which is the exposure associated with commencing and remaining in business arising separately from exposures covered by other risk requirements. It is the risk of loss resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems which include, among others, risks of fraud, operational or settlement failure and shortage of liquid resources, or from external events.

3. Position risk requirement

The amount necessary to accommodate a given level of position risk which is the risk a broker dealer is exposed to and arising from securities held by it as a principal or in its proprietary or dealer account.

4. AI

Total money liabilities of a broker dealer arising in connection with any transaction whatsoever, and includes, among other things, money borrowed, money payable against securities loaned and securities failed to receive, the market value of securities borrowed to the extent to which no equivalent value is paid or credited (other than the market value of margin securities borrowed from customers and margin securities borrowed from non-customers), customers' and non-customers' free credit balances, and credit balances in customers' and non-customers' account having short positions in securities subject to the exclusions provided in the said SEC Memorandum.

On May 28, 2009, the SEC approved the PSE's Rules Governing Trading Rights and Trading Participants, which supersede the Membership Rules of the PSE. Section 8(c) of Article III of the said rules requires trading participants to have a minimum unimpaired paid-up capital, as defined by the SEC, of ₱20,000,000 effective December 31, 2009, and ₱30,000,000 effective December 31, 2010 and onwards. As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the Parent Company is compliant with this capital requirement.

The Parent Company's regulated operations have complied with all externally-imposed capital requirements as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

22. Financial Risk Management Objectives and Policies

The main purpose of the Group's financial instruments is to fund its operations. The Group's principal financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents, financial assets at FVTPL, investment securities at amortized cost, trade receivables, other receivables, deposit and refundable contributions to CTGF, refundable deposits under other noncurrent assets, trade payables, other current liabilities and rental deposits payable which arise from operations.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are credit risk, liquidity risk, equity price risk and foreign currency risk.

The BOD reviews and agrees on the policies for managing each of these risks which are summarized below:

Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the potential loss arising from any failure by counterparties to fulfill their obligations, as and when they fall due. It is inherent to the stock brokerage business as potential losses may arise due to the failure of its customers and counterparties to fulfill their trading obligations on settlement dates or the possibility that the value of collateral held to secure obligations becoming inadequate due to adverse market conditions.

The business model of the Group minimizes its exposure to credit risk. The Group's customers, except those granted with a credit line facility by the Parent Company, are required to deposit funds to their accounts and their purchases are limited to their cash deposit. In order to manage the potential credit risk associated with the Parent Company's margin lending activities, the Group has established policies and procedures in evaluating and approving applications for margin financing as well as the review of credit performance and limits. In addition, the Parent Company requires its margin customers a Two Peso (₱2) security cover for every One Peso (₱1) exposure. The security cover can either be in cash or a combination of cash and marginable stock identified by the Parent Company using a set of criteria.

The Group utilizes an internal credit rating system based on its assessment of the quality of its financial assets. The Group classifies its financial assets into the following credit grades:

- High grade - This pertains to accounts with a very low probability of default as demonstrated by the counterparty's long history of stability, profitability and diversity. This applies to highly rated financial obligors, strong corporate counterparties and personal borrowers with whom the Group has excellent repayment experience.
- Standard grade – This pertains to counterparties with no history of default. This applies to financial assets that are performing as expected.

Financial assets at amortized cost

The Group's financial assets at amortized cost, which are neither past due nor impaired, are classified as high grade and are in stage 1 of the ECL model, due to its high probability of collection (i.e. the counterparty has the evident ability to satisfy its obligation).

Cash and cash equivalents are considered high grade and are in stage 1 of the ECL model. These are deposited with reputable banks duly approved by the BOD and have low probability of insolvency. These are considered to be low credit risk investments.

Trade receivables from margin customers have no specific credit terms but customers are required to maintain the value of their collateral within a specific level. Once the value of the collateral falls down this level, customers may either deposit additional collateral or sell stock to cover any shortfall.

Meanwhile, receivables from postpaid customers are required to be settled on two (2) trading days' term for the Parent Company. The receivable balances become demandable upon failure of the customer to duly comply with these requirements. As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, ₱881,039,467 and ₱834,213,774 of the total receivables from customers is secured by collateral comprising of equity securities of listed companies with a total market value of ₱5,404,580,730 and ₱6,040,817,838, respectively (Note 6).

An impairment analysis is performed at each reporting date using a provision matrix to measure expected credit losses, while also considering the regulatory requirements under SRC Rule 52.1. The provision matrix is based on the Parent Company's historical observed default rates. The calculation reflects the probability-weighted outcome, the time value of money and reasonable and supportable information that is available at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

The aging analyses of the Group's trade receivables as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 are summarized in the following table (gross of allowance for credit losses):

	Days after trade date				Total
	T+0 to T+1	T+2 to T+12	T+13 to T+30	T+31 to T+365
June 30, 2026 (Unaudited)
Expected loss rate	0.00%	2.00%	0.00%	0.00%	0.30%
Trade receivables	₱128,872,018	₱129,585,449	₱79,462,667	₱543,129,078	₱881,049,212
Expected credit loss	–	2,592,030	–	9,745	2,601,775
December 31, 2025 (Audited)
Expected loss rate	0.00%	2.00%	0.00%	0.00%	0.24%
Trade receivables	₱17,700,895	₱101,711,123	₱129,532,479	₱585,279,046	₱834,223,543
Expected credit loss	–	2,034,222	–	9,769	2,043,991

Past due accounts pertain to margin accounts of the Parent Company. A margin account has no due date and becomes demandable only when the equity percentage of the customers falls below 33.33%. The loss rate for trade receivables is considered minimal.

Transactions through the stock exchange are covered by the guarantee fund contributed by member brokers and maintained by the clearing house.

Investment securities at amortized cost are classified as high grade. The Group's investments in government securities are considered of low credit risk since these are rated by an international credit rating company as Baa2, which is considered as 'Investment Grade.'

Refundable deposits under other noncurrent assets are classified as high grade and are in stage 1 of the ECL model since the amount shall be kept intact by the lessor throughout the term of the contract and shall be returned after the term.

Financial assets at FVTPL

Companies that are consistently profitable, have strong fundamentals and pays out dividends. As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the Group's financial assets at FVTPL are classified as high grade since these are with listed companies of good reputation.

Deposit and refundable contributions to CTGF

Deposit and refundable contributions to CTGF pertains to contributions made by the Parent Company to a guarantee fund as required by the SCCP and is classified as high grade. The Parent Company does not expect significant exposure on the balance as the amount shall be kept intact by the SCCP as a requirement to conduct stock brokerage business and shall be returned after the Parent Company ceases to operate its business.

Other receivables

These receivables from counterparties with no history of default and are not past due as at the end of the reporting period are classified as standard grade.

Collateral and other credit enhancement

Margin customers are required to maintain the value of their collateral within a specific level. Once the value of the collateral falls down this level, customers may either deposit additional collateral or sell stock to cover their shortfall.

Collateral comes in the form of financial assets. This pertains to securities listed and traded in the PSE and lodged with the Philippine Depository and Trust Corporation under the account of the Parent Company. The market value of the securities is closely monitored to ensure compliance with the required levels of collaterals.

The Group's exposure to credit risk arising from default of the counterparty has a maximum exposure equal to the carrying amount of the particular instrument plus any irrevocable loan commitment or credit facility.

There are no significant concentrations of credit risk within the Group.

Maximum exposure to credit risk and collateral and other credit enhancements

Except for receivable from customers, the carrying values of the Group's financial assets as reflected in the consolidated statements of financial position as of June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 represent the financial asset's maximum exposure to credit risk as there are no collateral held or other credit enhancements related to these financial assets.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk arises from the possibility that the Group may encounter difficulties in raising funds to meet commitments from financial instruments or that a market for derivatives may not exist in some circumstances.

The Group manages its liquidity profile to meet the following objectives: a) to ensure that adequate funding is available at all times; b) to meet commitments as they arise without incurring unnecessary costs; and c) to be able to access funding when needed at the least possible cost.

As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, all of the Group's financial liabilities, which consist of trade payables and other current liabilities (except statutory payables), are contractually payable on demand and up to a 60-day term.

Correspondingly, the financial assets that can be used by the Group to manage its liquidity risk as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 consist of cash and cash equivalents, short-term time deposits, financial assets at FVTPL and trade receivables.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss to future earnings, to fair values or to future cash flows that may result from changes in the price of a financial instrument. The value of a financial instrument may change as a result of changes in interest rates, foreign currency exchanges rates, commodity prices, equity prices and other market changes. The Group's market risk originates from its holdings of equity instruments and foreign currency-denominated financial instruments.

Equity price risk

Equity price risk is the risk to earnings or capital arising from changes in stock exchange indices relating to its quoted equity securities. The Group's exposure to equity price risk relates primarily to its financial assets at FVTPL which pertain to investments in shares of stock of companies listed in the PSE and in mutual fund shares. The Group's policy is to maintain the risk within an acceptable level. Movement in share price is monitored regularly to determine the impact on its financial position.

Since the carrying amount of financial assets subject to equity price risk is immaterial relative to the interim consolidated financial statements, Management believes that disclosure of equity price risk sensitivity analysis as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 is not significant.

Foreign currency risk

The Group's policy is to maintain foreign currency exposure within acceptable limits and within existing regulatory guidelines. The Group believes that its profile of foreign currency exposure on its assets and liabilities is within conservative limits for a financial institution engaged in the type of business in which the Group is engaged.

The Group's exposure to foreign currency exchange risk arises from its US$-denominated cash in banks amounting to US$1,095 and US$1,084 as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively (Note 4).

Since the amount of US$-denominated cash in bank subject to foreign currency risk is immaterial relative to the interim consolidated financial statements, Management believes that disclosure of foreign currency risk analysis as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 is not significant.

Offsetting of Financial Assets and Liabilities

The table below presents information about rights to offset related arrangements (such as collateral posting requirements) for financial instruments under an enforceable master netting agreements or similar agreements.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, other receivables, trade payables and other current liabilities, which are all subject to normal trade credit terms and are short-term in nature, approximate their fair values.

Financial assets at FVTPL

The Group's financial assets at FVTPL are carried at their fair values as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025. Fair value of financial assets at FVTPL is based on the closing quoted prices of stock investments published by the PSE. Fair value of mutual funds is based on net asset values computed and published by the mutual fund providers. Fair value of debt securities is based on the quoted market price in an active market as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

Refundable deposits

The fair value of the refundable deposits is based on the present value of the future cash flows discounted using credit adjusted risk-free rates for a similar type of instrument using 2.80% as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025. There are no changes in the valuation techniques in 2026 and 2025.

Investment securities at amortized cost

The fair value of the investment is based on the quoted market price in an active market as at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

Investment property

The fair value of the investment property has been based on highest and best use of property being appraised. Valuations were derived on the basis of recent sales of similar properties in the same areas as the investment property and taking into account the economic conditions prevailing at the time the valuations were made and comparability of similar properties sold with the property being valued.

On April 6, 2022, the BIR issued a ruling to the Parent Company confirming the inclusion in its cost of services of: salaries, wages and benefits; outside services; materials, supplies and facilities; depreciation; rental; and other office costs that are considered as direct costs and expenses that are inherently necessary to deliver the services required in the conduct of its business activities as a service-oriented company.

Outside services comprise agents' commissions, as well as professional fees paid to third-party independent contractors. These expenses are directly associated with and indispensable for the Parent Company's provision of essential services to its customers.

'Others' include among others, office supplies and computer accessories which are utilized in providing the service and are considered as essential expense items for an entity engaged in the business of stockbrokerage and dealership in securities.

MANAGEMENT REPORT

Management's Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following is a discussion and analysis of the financial performance of COL Financial Group, Inc. (COL, COL Financial, or the Parent Company) and its subsidiaries collectively referred to as “the Group”. The discussion aims to provide readers with an appreciation of its business model and the key factors underlying its financial results. The MD&A should be read in conjunction with the unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of the Group filed as part of this report.

A. Company Overview

COL Financial Group, Inc. is a publicly listed company in the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE), incorporated on August 16, 1999.

COL Financial is widely recognized as the leading online stockbroker in the Philippines, serving over half a million clients. Since launching the country’s first non-bank online trading platform in 2005, COL has been at the forefront of democratizing stock market access. At a time when investing was largely limited to a select few, COL broke barriers by leveraging technology and education to empower everyday Filipinos to take control of their financial future.

To build investor confidence and promote financial literacy, COL invested in free seminars, research tools, and educational resources, supporting self-directed investors with the knowledge they needed to make informed investment decisions.

As the market evolved, so did COL. In 2010, the Parent Company launched a dedicated advisory team to serve high-net-worth individuals and institutional clients. By 2014, COL expanded into the fund distribution space, offering access to a broad range of local and global investment products.

In 2019, COL Investment Management Inc. (CIMI), COL’s asset management arm, was established to provide professionally managed solutions tailored to the Filipino investor. In 2022 and 2023, CIMI launched two in-house mutual funds, namely:

- COL Equity Index Unitized Mutual Fund, Inc. (CEIUMF)
- COL Strategic Growth Equity Unitized Mutual Fund, Inc. (CSGEUMF)

These funds reflect COL’s continued commitment to making expert-led investment solutions more accessible to the public.

In line with COL’s continuing initiatives to strengthen its service offerings, it implemented further enhancements to its client engagement framework. Recognizing the growing need of the high-net-worth clients for a more personalized, goal-driven financial guidance, COL formally established its Private Wealth group in June 2025. This unit builds on COL’s long-standing advisory capabilities and provides higher-touch, relationship-based support to clients seeking a more comprehensive approach to managing their investments. Through deeper engagement, customized strategies, and an expanded suite of investment solutions, the Private Wealth group helps clients manage, grow, and preserve their wealth—further strengthening COL’s position as a trusted partner in long-term financial planning.

As part of its strategic realignment initiatives, COL completed the wind-down and deregistration of its Hong Kong operations under COL Securities (HK) Limited (COLHK). COLHK ceased trading operations in May 2024, and its deregistration was completed on April 17, 2026 following the revocation of its license by the Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) and the approval of the Hong Kong Companies Registry.

Today, COL continues to be the most trusted online stockbroker in the Philippines, with a consistent focus on technology innovation, investor empowerment, and financial education. As the financial industry transforms, COL is evolving into a full-scale investment platform, enabling Filipinos to build, grow, track, and protect their wealth across multiple asset classes, while staying true to its founding mission of financial inclusion and empowerment.

B. Business Model

COL Financial is driven by the belief that every Filipino deserves the opportunity to live a richer life—regardless of age, income level, or investment knowledge. Staying true to this mission, COL has made investing more accessible to all, from seasoned market participants to first-time investors.

The business model of COL is anchored on creating long-term value for its customers by addressing their evolving needs through financial education, a broad range of ethical products and services, and expert insights. This approach ensures that clients are equipped with both the knowledge and the right investment solutions to meet their financial goals—no matter where they are in their investing journey.

COL Financial generates a significant portion of its revenue from its core stock brokerage operations in the Philippines. Its key revenue streams include:

- Commissions from stock trades,
- Interest income from margin financing,
- Trail fees from its fund distribution business, and
- Interest income from short-term placements.

Looking ahead, COL Financial remains focused on supporting Filipinos in building wealth by continuously expanding its investment offerings, enhancing its technology-driven solutions, and solidifying its position as the country's leading online broker.

C. Industry and Economic Review

Philippine equities started 2026 on a strong note, supported by robust foreign inflows into emerging markets. By end-February, the Philippine Stock Exchange Composite Index (PSEi) had risen 9.22% year-to-date, as foreign investors rotated out of U.S. equities and into emerging market stocks. This shift was driven by growing concerns over the stretched valuations of U.S. technology stocks and a potential slowdown in the sector. In contrast, emerging market equities offered more attractive valuations and greater exposure to traditional sectors. A weaker U.S. dollar also encouraged investors to diversify into emerging markets. As a result, net foreign buying in the local market reached ₱21.27 billion during the first two months of the year.

However, the market's strong performance was short-lived. On February 28, the U.S. and Israel began bombing Iran, prompting Iran to retaliate by threatening vessels transiting the Strait of Hormuz. The effective closure of the Strait, where around a fifth of the world's oil passes through, caused oil prices to surge. This weighed heavily on Philippine equities, as the country's dependence on oil imports made investor sentiment highly sensitive to rising energy prices.

The increase in oil prices also fed into domestic inflation and broader macroeconomic weakness. Average inflation rose to 6.10% from March to June 2026, up significantly from only 2.2% during the first two months of the year, driven mainly by higher food, utilities, and transport costs. At the same time, gross domestic product growth slowed to 2.60% during the first half, its weakest pace since the pandemic, as consumer spending growth decelerated to only 2.90% while government spending on construction dropped by 32.20%. The peso also weakened significantly, reflecting the sharp increase in import costs.

As a result, the PSEi reversed its earlier gains and ended the first half of the year flat year-to-date. Foreign investors also turned net sellers, liquidating 15.43 billion worth of Philippine equities during the first six months of 2026.

Despite the market's lackluster performance, trading activity improved from a year earlier. Average daily value turnover reached ₱7.72 billion in the first half of 2026, up from ₱6.80 billion in the same period last year.

D. Business Review

1. Key Performance Indicators

COL Financial remains focused on maximizing profitability through the strategic allocation of resources, with the overarching goal of enhancing shareholder value. To ensure sustainable growth, it continuously evaluates the effectiveness of its corporate initiatives and key performance indicators (KPI), which serve as critical benchmarks in assessing the success of its financial and operational strategies. Outlined below are some of the KPIs used to measure the Group's progress:

	June 30, 2026	June 30, 2025
Number of Customer Accounts*	574,297	563,139
Customers' Net Equity (in millions)	₱122,647.34	₱124,185.87
Revenues (in millions)	₱592.72	₱562.21
Annualized Return on Equity	21.30%	22.03%
Risk Based Capital Adequacy Ratio*	548.33%	791.84%

 Parent Company only*

COL's customer base continued to grow, with customer accounts increasing by 1.98% year-on-year to 574,297 as of end-June 2026. The growth was supported by sustained client acquisition initiatives, enhancements to the account onboarding process and ongoing client engagement programs, which continued to attract new investors despite volatile market conditions.

Customers' net equity fell by 1.24% to ₱122.65 billion during the period despite the ₱4.19 billion in cash dividends received and ₱4.71 billion in net cash inflows over the past twelve months as the PSEi index fell by 5.15% compared to the same period last year. Accordingly, the reduction in customers' net equity was primarily market-driven rather than attributable to net withdrawals from the Parent Company's operations.

Revenues for the period increased by 5.43% to ₱592.72 million, primarily driven by higher core service revenues and recurring fee-based income, partially offset by lower interest income amid the prevailing lower interest-rate environment.

Net income rose by 2.55% to ₱261.63 million, supported by revenue expansion and disciplined cost management. Annualized return on average equity (ROE) fell slightly to 21.30% in the first half of 2026. Notwithstanding the modest decline, the Parent Company continued to generate a strong return on its equity base while maintaining sufficient resources to support its operations and strategic initiatives.

The Parent Company maintained a strong regulatory capital position, with a Risk-Based Capital Adequacy Ratio (RBCA) of 548.33% as of June 30, 2026, well above the minimum requirement of 110.00%.

2. Material Changes in Financial Condition (June 30, 2026 vs December 31, 2025)

Consolidated assets increased by 6.24% to ₱12.87 billion as of end-June 2026. Cash and cash equivalents, which is 47.31% of consolidated assets, decreased by 33.71% to ₱6.09 billion. This is primarily due to the deliberate redeployment of excess liquidity into higher-yielding instruments. This was reflected in the 247.14% increase in investment securities at amortized cost to ₱5.39 billion and the 13.92% increase in financial assets at fair value through profit or loss to ₱164.41 million. This represents a reallocation of liquid resources rather than a reduction in overall liquidity, allowing the Group to optimize investment returns amid a lower interest-rate environment while maintaining sufficient funds for operating and regulatory requirements. The Group's substantial remaining cash position and liquid investment portfolio continue to provide adequate financial flexibility to support its operations.

Trade receivables increased modestly by 1.14% to ₱881.98 million, mainly reflecting normal fluctuations in client trading activity. Receivables from postpaid customers increased by 57.07%, or ₱21.03 million, while margin receivables rose by 3.17%, bringing total customer receivables higher by 5.61% to ₱881.05 million. The increase in customer receivables was largely offset by the absence of receivables from the clearing house, compared with ₱37.15 million as of year-end 2025, as customer trades resulted in a net buying position during the last two trading days of June 2026.

On the other hand, other receivables decreased by 13.14% to ₱84.33 million, primarily due to lower accrued interest income and reduced fund-related settlement activity during the period.

Prepayments increased by 15.31% to ₱11.92 million, mainly due to a ₱7.47 million increase in prepaid taxes. The increase primarily relates to final withholding taxes paid upon the acquisition of government Treasury bills, which are recognized over the term of the related investments, as well as local business taxes applicable to succeeding periods. This was partly offset by the normal amortization of insurance and other service prepayments.

Other current assets increased by 6.77% to ₱29.85 million, mainly due to ₱1.97 million of unutilized creditable withholding taxes. During the period, the Parent Company prioritized the utilization of available prior-year net operating loss carryover (NOLCO) to offset taxable income, which reduced the current income tax liability and, consequently, the amount of creditable withholding taxes that could be applied. The remaining tax credits are available for application against future income tax liabilities.

Property and equipment increased by 2.09% to ₱95.45 million, reflecting continued capital expenditures and right-of-use asset additions during the period. Capital spending remained focused on strengthening platform resilience, business continuity and operating efficiency as the brokerage business continues to scale.

Net deferred income tax assets decreased by 36.36% to ₱20.23 million, mainly due to the utilization of a portion of the Parent Company's available NOLCO against taxable income during the period. This resulted in the realization of the related deferred tax benefit and a corresponding reduction in the deferred tax asset.

Other noncurrent assets increased by 1.94% to ₱72.67 million, primarily due to ₱1.47 million in additional refundable contributions to the Clearing and Trade Guaranty Fund (CTGF) during the period, reflecting the higher level of trading and clearing activity.

Trade payables increased by 9.37% to ₱10.24 billion, primarily due to higher customers' undeployed funds, which reached ₱10.15 billion at period-end. The increase reflected stronger client funding during the first half of 2026, including ₱2.80 billion of net client inflows, as well as approximately ₱2.50 billion of cash dividends credited to customer accounts. These inflows supported the higher client cash balance despite the continued deployment of funds into trading and other investment activities during the period. Payables to the clearing house, likewise, increased by ₱66.74 million, or 215.96%, reflecting customers' higher net buying position during the last two trading days of June 2026 and the corresponding unsettled settlement obligations at period-end.

Other current liabilities decreased by 22.44% to ₱114.96 million, mainly due to the settlement of accrued expenses and management bonuses outstanding at year-end, together with lower fund-related settlement obligations as of June 30, 2026. These decreases were partly offset by higher taxes payable, unposted customer deposits and other trading-related liabilities. Overall, the movement largely reflects the timing of payments, settlements and transaction cut-offs during the period.

Stockholders' equity decreased by 3.34% to ₱2.43 billion, mainly as the ₱345.70 million cash dividend paid in June 2026 exceeded the ₱261.63 million net income generated during the period. The movement primarily reflects the distribution of accumulated earnings to shareholders, rather than a deterioration in operating performance.

3. Material Changes in the Results of Operations (June 30, 2026 vs June 30, 2025)

Consolidated revenues increased by 5.43% to ₱592.72 million during the first half of 2026, driven mainly by stronger brokerage revenues and continued growth in recurring fee-based income. The improvement reflects higher client activity in the Parent Company's core businesses, while interest income remained relatively resilient despite the lower interest-rate environment. Overall, the revenue mix continued to broaden, with activity-driven and recurring revenues contributing a larger share of the Group's growth.

Commission income increased by 21.07% to ₱234.46 million, supported by higher value turnover during the period. Despite generally challenging market conditions, trading activity improved, particularly during the earlier part of the year, resulting in stronger brokerage revenues compared with the same period in 2025. This underscores the continued importance of client participation and trading activity to the performance of the Parent Company's core brokerage business.

Trail fees increased by 35.45% to ₱17.50 million, supported by the 29.15% growth in fund assets under administration to ₱7.78 billion. The increase reflects the continued expansion of assets held through the Parent Company's fund platform, providing a growing source of recurring revenue alongside transaction-based brokerage income.

Interest income decreased by 4.24% to ₱324.41 million, mainly reflecting the lower interest-rate environment and lower average utilization of margin facilities. Interest income from special time deposits and fixed-income securities declined by only 3.17% to ₱293.02 million despite lower market yields, reflecting prudent management of available cash and liquidity in the ordinary course of business. Interest income from customers decreased by 13.26% to ₱31.39 million as average margin utilization remained below the prior-year level, with clients generally more cautious in their use of leverage during the period.

Total expenses increased by 10.59% to ₱257.59 million, primarily reflecting continued investments supporting business operations and higher activity-driven costs consistent with increased customer trading volumes.

Personnel expenses, which comprise the largest share of total costs, increased by 11.06% to ₱106.47 million, primarily due to the salary adjustments implemented during the period to maintain market competitiveness and support employee retention. The increase also reflects the normal timing effect of personnel movements between the comparative periods, including the full-period recognition of employees hired during the second half of 2025 and the first half of 2026. Overall, the increase is attributable to Management's planned investment in human capital to support the Group's operational requirements and long-term growth.

Trading-related expenses increased in line with higher client trading activity. Stock exchange dues and fees rose by 22.64% to ₱19.03 million. Commission and trail-related expenses, likewise, increased by 25.86% to ₱20.62 million, consistent with the higher agency trading volume and fund AUA during the period. These increases are largely volume-driven and variable in nature, representing costs associated with the growth in the Parent Company's core revenue-generating activities rather than an expansion in its fixed cost base.

Professional fees increased by 4.24% to ₱23.46 million, primarily due to higher IT and cybersecurity consultancy costs. The additional investment was undertaken to strengthen the security, resilience, and reliability of the Parent Company's online trading platform as client activity and digital operations continue to grow. In addition, communication expenses grew by 7.16% to ₱22.60 million, primarily due to higher spending on cybersecurity and platform protection services following the expansion of the Parent Company's digital infrastructure. The increase reflects Management's continuing efforts to enhance the Parent Company's technology environment and safeguard its online services.

Rental and utilities expenses increased by ₱1.85 million and ₱0.44 million, respectively, primarily due to additional technology infrastructure costs associated with the Parent Company's ongoing technology initiatives, as well as higher occupancy-related expenses following the full utilization of its expanded office facilities. Utility costs likewise increased due to higher electricity consumption resulting from increased onsite operations and higher power rates during the period. Overall, the increase reflects the Parent Company's continued investment in maintaining the infrastructure necessary to support its operations.

Depreciation and amortization rose by 9.79% to ₱21.60 million, primarily due to the continued depreciation of technology assets acquired to strengthen the Parent Company's infrastructure and replace aging equipment, as well as completed office improvements placed into service during the latter part of the prior year. The increase reflects the normal recognition of prior capital investments and is consistent with Management's continuing efforts to modernize the Parent Company's technology and operating environment.

On the other hand, training, seminar, and meeting costs decreased by 61.14% to ₱0.73 million, mainly due to the completion of several key programs and initiatives in prior periods. As a result, related training and meeting activities normalized during the quarter, reflecting the timing of capability-building initiatives rather than a reduction in the Parent Company's commitment to employee development and organizational support.

Loss on sale of investment securities at amortized cost decreased by 91.43% to ₱0.46 million, mainly because the comparative period included a higher realized loss arising from a specific Treasury repositioning undertaken in early part of 2025. The repositioning involved the sale of a lower-yielding government security and the reinvestment of the proceeds into a higher-yielding, longer-tenor government security to take advantage of more favorable market yields and improve prospective interest returns.

Provision for income taxes increased by 5.89% to ₱72.52 million, mainly driven by higher deferred tax expense arising from the partial utilization of the Parent Company's remaining NOLCO from prior year. The utilization of these carryforward tax benefits reflects the Group's continued ability to generate taxable income during the period. This increase more than offset the reduction in final taxes on interest income from fund placements as market yields normalized, as well as the lower current income tax for the six-month period. Overall, the movement reflects the changing composition of the Parent Company's earnings and tax base, with deferred tax adjustments becoming a more significant component of the total tax provision during the period.

Consequently, consolidated net income grew by 2.55% to ₱261.63 million, supported by the continued improvement in revenue quality, particularly from higher activity-driven and recurring revenue streams, alongside disciplined cost management and prudent resource utilization. While total expenses increased during the period due to continued investments in talent, operational support, platform capabilities, and other activity-related costs associated with higher client engagement, expense growth remained relatively measured compared with the expansion in business activity. This allowed the Group to sustain healthy profitability and operating efficiency, with revenue growth continuing to absorb these strategic operating investments despite the naturally higher direct costs associated with core operating revenues.

4. Other Matters

- a. COL is not aware of any known trends, demands, commitments, events, or uncertainties that would have a material impact on the Group's liquidity. The Group has not defaulted on its obligations, which primarily arise from withdrawals made by customers. Furthermore, the obligations of the Parent Company are fully funded in compliance with SRC Rule 49.2. As COLHK is in the process of dissolution and all customer funds have been returned, COLHK is no longer required to maintain a fund for the exclusive benefit of its customers.
- b. COL is not aware of any events that will trigger direct or contingent financial obligation that is material to the Group, including any default or acceleration of an obligation.
- c. COL is not aware of any material off-balance sheet transactions, arrangements, obligations (including contingent obligations) and other relationships of the Group with other persons created during the reporting period.
- d. COL is not aware of any material commitments for capital expenditures.
- e. COL is not aware of any known trends, events, or uncertainties that have had or that are reasonably expected to have a material favorable or unfavorable impact on net sales or revenues or income from continuing operations of the Group.
- f. COL is not aware of any significant elements of income or loss that did not arise from the Group's continuing operations.
- g. COL is not aware of any seasonal aspects that had a material effect on the financial condition or results of operations of the Group.

3. Dividends

a. Dividend Policy

The Board of Directors of COL, in its meeting held on April 26, 2007, approved a policy of declaring an annual regular cash dividend of twenty per cent (20%) of its net income. The Amended By-Laws of COL further provide that dividends shall be declared and paid out of the unrestricted retained earnings of the COL which shall be payable in cash, property, or stock to all stockholders on the basis of outstanding stock held by them. There are no restrictions that limit payment of dividends on common shares.

COL evaluates its dividend payments from time to time in accordance with business and regulatory requirements.

i. Cash Dividends

Year	Amount / Share	Type	Ex-Date	Record Date	Payment Date
2026	₱0.0194	Regular	May 14, 2026	May 15, 2026	June 4, 2026
